

Truman Backs Stand For Soviet Action, Not Talk

U.S. To Halt Help To Lands Arming Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will shut off economic aid to any European country which supplies war machinery to Russia, E.E.P. Director Paul Hoffman said today.

The Economic Co-Operation Administrator was before the Senate appropriations committee to ask further funds for the European Recovery Program.

Senator Guy Cordon (Rep.-Ore.), asked Hoffman what he intended to do to "control the translation of our goods and money" into war machinery for Russia.

"If it is true," said Hoffman, "that we are furnishing aid, and if a country is shipping such commodities (to Russia), they have got to stop it or we won't furnish aid."

Hoffman gave the Senators assurance, too, that E.C.A. will ship abroad only those goods "which can wisely and safely be spared."

Senator Joseph O'Mahoney (Dem., Wyo.) asked Hoffman if he plans to furnish shipments of newsprint from Canada to the United Kingdom.

"I have read," O'Mahoney said, "that you plan to pay for the entire shipment."

Hoffman said: "We've been trying to get the facts on newsprint, but so far we haven't paid for one ounce of newsprint. Our objective is to help Europe produce its own newsprint, so that it will not have to come all the way to Canada for its supply."

ASKS FULL AMOUNT

"Continued United States prosperity is paramount to the achievement of European recovery," he said as he appeared before the Senate committee to plead for the full $4,245,000,000 balance needed to round out the $3,800,000,000 Congress has authorized for the recovery program.

The remainder of the sum has been provided for through advances from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and Congress.

The E.C.A. chief promised the committee that requests for aid by European countries will be carefully screened and the use of U.S. dollars overseas will be thoroughly checked.

Serum For Alcoholics

SEATTLE (AP)—A group of doctors of the Research Foundation for Alcoholism reported today that the so-called "truth serum"—sodium Pentothal—has been used with considerable success in treating the more difficult cases of alcoholism.

Leduc Well, Gushing Wild, Forces Field To Shut Down

EDMONTON (CP)—Valves in all 60 producing wells at nearby Leduc's $300,000,000 oil field were turned off at 5 a.m. today, and the Alberta government said the valves would remain closed until a fire and explosion hazard had been removed.

Experts said that would be at least three weeks. Leduc's average daily output of 9,000 to 10,000 barrels, each worth $3.45, the potential loss is figured at a minimum of $5,000,000.

Atlantic Well No. 3, gushing uncontrolled since March 8, was labelled the hazard, and the province's Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board today took over the job of controlling it.

EXAGGERATED, HE SAYS

Meanwhile, Frank M. McMahon of the Atlantic Oil Co. said in Calgary Tuesday night that reports of fire and explosion danger at the field were "greatly exaggerated."

"There is a definite danger of both fire and explosions in the immediate vicinity of our No. 3 well, but this is confined to an area of about 10 acres around No. 3, and well within the 40-acre site of the well," he said. "There is no danger to the field as a whole."

Engineers said the well is belching more oil—10,000 barrels daily—than the rest of the field combined. The green-black liquid

Deterrents To Strikes Urged In Labor Code

OTTAWA (CP)—Deterrents against strikes were proposed for the federal labor code today by the Ontario Mining Association and the Shipowners' Association (deep sea) of British Columbia.

Their suggestions were made in briefs to the Commons industrial relations committee as it continued consideration of the code, preparatory to third reading in the Commons.

The Mining Association advocated:

1. That a strike should be illegal unless a majority of the affected employees vote in favor of it.

2. That unions responsible for illegal strikes should lose their bargaining rights.

BARS PROPOSED

The shipowners asked:

1. In illegal strikes, both the unions and the participating employees should lose their status under the code.

2. "Slowdown" strikes should be dealt with on the same terms as work stoppages.

3. Sympathetic strikes and "secondary boycotts"—workers in one plant refusing to handle goods from a strike-bound plant—should be barred.

4. Strike votes should be by government-supervised secret ballot.

Another suggestion of the ship operators was that union officials be required to file with the Labor Department affidavits that they are not Communists.

Opposition developed to a clause declaring the government could exclude any employers or employees from the operation of the code, and consideration of this provision was deferred until later.

Objectors included Angus McInnis, C.C.F., Vancouver East.

Ambassador's Talk With Russians Makes News

Walter Bedell Smith (right), U.S. Ambassador to Moscow, at the Templehof Airport, Berlin, after the series of talks he had with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov which many hoped would lead to an ending or easing of the "cold war." Today, however, President Truman said his hopes for permanent peace had not been strengthened by the exchange of notes. Greeting Ambassador Smith are shown, left to right, Maj.-Gen. George P. Hays, Mrs. Lucius D. Clay and Maj.-Gen. Carl E. Welchner.

Full Jewish Mobilization Sought As State Declared

JERUSALEM (AP)—Jewish forces called on all trained men and women of fighting age today to mobilize for the "zero hour" in Palestine when a Jewish state is proclaimed.

The state will be proclaimed early tomorrow night, effective one minute after midnight, when the British mandate ends. The Jewish provisional government decided in Tel Aviv to proclaim the state early in the evening to avoid such action on the Jewish Sabbath.

The Jewish mobilization call, issued in Haifa, ordered all men and women between the ages of 18 and 35 who have had any previous military training to report immediately for duty. These include not only those who have had training in Jewish forces, but also those who had any type of previous military training.

Observers said this was a precaution against possible invasion by the neighboring Arab countries.

PLANS OF ARABS

At the same time the seven-state Arab League prepared to set up what it called an Arab civil administration, as distinguished from a state, to function in co-operation with occupying Arab forces.

Hagana, the Jewish army, moved into all-Arab Jaffa, which adjoins Tel Aviv. Jaffa's Arab Emergency Committee, set up when the port city's municipal government collapsed last week following Jewish attacks, surrendered Jaffa at 11 a.m. in Tel Aviv, accepting all Jewish terms.

Regional Defences Important To Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—The government attaches large importance to proposals in Washington for regional defence pacts, but Canada will not take the lead in pressing for them.

An External Affairs official made that clear today in commenting on the announcement that the United States Senate foreign relations committee and its State Department are proposing a new policy stressing regional pacts within the United Nations.

The official said that policy "seems to fit" with earlier proposals by Canada's External Affairs Minister, Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, who suggested a league of free states as a collective security measure.

However, Canada has no intention of leading any movement towards a western hemisphere integration with the five Western Union countries of Europe. She is quite willing to go along, but government officials think some larger country should do the leading.

Assiniboine River Still Threatening Southern Manitoba

WINNIPEG (CP)—Peak waters of the Assiniboine River continued today as a threat to thousands of acres in the heart of southern Manitoba, with floods battering a mile-long dike on the south side of the river six miles east of Portage la Prairie.

If the struggle to hold back the river fails, farmers who have been working on the dikes day and night for a week fear the waters will burst through and roll southeast toward Oakville and Newton, flooding miles of farmland. The area faced with danger of further flooding is 65 miles west of Winnipeg.

At Portage, volunteer flood-fighters expressed cautious confidence that the two reinforced dikes protecting the city from a possible flood threat would hold. The word from other parts of western Canada generally was cheerful. The situation in Saskatchewan, British Columbia and the rest of Manitoba was good, but in Alberta's Rossington district, 50 miles northwest of Edmonton, mountain streams were feeding the already-swollen Pembina River.

Winter Wheat Harvested

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (CP)—The season's first load of winter wheat was harvested near Olney, Tex., Wednesday by Elmer E. Hennig. The harvest began last year May 27, and the year before May 8, an extremely early date. Hennig was offered $2.12 a bushel.

Religious Indifference In Britain Deplored By S.A. Head

GEN. ALBERT ORSBORN

Indifference to religion prevails among youth in Great Britain, Gen. Albert Orsborn, C.B.E., international leader of the Salvation Army, said on his arrival in Victoria today.

Gen. Orsborn, who is accompanied by his wife, Commissioner J. B. Smith, international secretary and Lt.-Col. Edgar Grinstead, international youth secretary of the Salvation Army, is touring Canada.

The indifference to religion he blamed on the two World Wars and lack of religious teachings in the home.

"Many young men entering the military forces at the age of 18 and 19 today are pagan in their outlook," he said, "but there is also a real curiosity to find out what it all means."

With regard to juvenile delinquency in Great Britain, Gen. Orsborn said it would appear that the peak reached during the war. The outlook in this respect was promising, he added.

Questioned about nationalization of social work by the British government, the Salvation Army head said the government plans for social welfare still left a great deal of work for the Army.

"There will always be sudden needs, unexpected problems, special cases outside the scope of the state help and many of these people will look to the Salvation Army," he said.

Gen. Orsborn addressed a joint luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club and Victoria Chamber of Commerce at the Empress Hotel today. He spoke on the work of the Salvation Army in England and abroad.

Says Recent Exchange Of Notes Fails So Far To Boost Peace Hopes

Police, Mob Both Hunting Firebug At Quebec Resort

STE. AGATHE, Que. (CP)—Two squad cars carrying Provincial Police raced north from Montreal today to find and protect a firebug responsible for an early-morning series of fires that destroyed six summer homes and damaged a hotel and nine cottages.

The losses are estimated at $175,000.

The incendiary was said known by villagers in the Laurentian district and there were reports of threats he would be lynched if the villagers caught him first.

The fires broke out within a few minutes of each other along a half-mile stretch between Val Morin and Val David, about 60 miles north of Montreal.

NO CASUALTIES

Reports here did not immediately identify the hotel damaged. But so far as could be learned no one was injured.

There are many hotels, small and large, and summer homes in this mountain area, both a winter and summer vacation playground.

Firemen from district villages said furnishings in some of the damaged homes and cottages had been soaked with oil.

About 30 firemen fought the flames for more than two hours. All agreed the fires were the work of an incendiary.

"They all started almost at the same time," officials said, "even though the houses extended along the roadway for nearly half a mile."

LATEST

Flood In Cariboo

VANCOUVER (CP)—First flood damage of the year in British Columbia was reported today from the Cariboo district of Cache Creek, where Bonaparte River is on the rampage. Farm families have been forced from their homes; others are isolated, and many farms have been inundated.

Leduc Field Safe

TORONTO (CP)—A spokesman for Imperial Oil Limited said today the still-uncontrolled gushing of a well in the Leduc, Alta., oil field, will have "no appreciable effect on the field as a whole." The official said there is no danger of "disaster" despite the possibility of explosion and fire in the immediate area of the gusher, Atlantic Oil's No. 3 well.

Less Wheat Sown

OTTAWA (CP)—Canadian farmers have indicated they plan to seed half a million fewer acres to wheat during 1948 than they did in 1947, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics said this afternoon in reporting acreage intentions as of April 30. The 1948 wheat acreage is placed at 23,700,000 acres compared with 24,300,000 last year.

3 Miners Trapped

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP)—Rescue crews worked today in an attempt to reach three miners trapped 175 feet below the surface in an independently operated hard coal mine. The three were trapped Wednesday as a heavy rain filled the shaft with about 50 feet of water.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman said today his hopes for eventual peace have not been increased by the recent exchange of notes with Russia.

The President told a press conference he is supporting to the limit State Secretary Marshall's statement that what is needed is action, rather than general talks. Marshall said Wednesday that if Russia desires to promote peace she can act through the United Nations and other Allied agencies. The Secretary of State ruled out any two-power, Russo-American talks on matters of concern also to other countries.

President Truman said Marshall had covered thoroughly the situation as left by the exchange of notes between Russia and the United States.

In response to questions, the President repeated what he had said often before—that he would be glad to meet with Prime Minister Stalin in Washington.

Asked what the two would talk about at such a meeting, the President said he would let the newspaper men know if such a meeting ever came about.

WATCHING FOR CHANGE

The whole reaction here to Russia's publication of the notes suggests the chance for any real improvement in relations between Russia and the United States hinges on whether there will be a basic change in Soviet foreign policy.

This is strongly indicated in the statement of top officials here commenting on the disclosure of Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith's two talks with Foreign Minister Molotov, and Molotov's formal reply.

Both President Truman and State Secretary Marshall have emphasized within the last three days that there is no departure in U.S. policy aimed at preventing further expansion of Russian power.

But the hope that there may be a change in the Soviet attitude toward the "cold war" and an increased willingness to settle outstanding problems was suggested directly by Marshall at a press conference.

Marshall cited a passage from Molotov's note last Sunday in which he declared Russia intends to carry out "a peace-loving policy and one of collaboration with regard to the U.S.A."

Molotov said this had always been Russia's policy and it had the unanimous support of the Russian people.

Marshall told reporters this passage should be interpreted on the basis of the future rather than the past and that in this light it was an extremely important statement.

NEW SPIRIT NEEDED

The cabinet officer said the people of the world would be watching to see how Molotov's declaration was applied. His own hope, he added, was that it would be reflected in a new spirit of negotiation on the part of the Soviet Union.

Truman made his position about U.S. policy clear Tuesday when he issued a statement declaring that the views expressed to Molotov by Smith on May 4 did not mark any "new departure in American policy."

As matters stand today it is by no means clear whether any concrete results will come out of the Smith-Molotov exchange of notes despite the world-wide excitement created by their broadcast from Moscow Monday night.

Soviet Papers In Berlin Say Marshall Peace Foe

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet-controlled newspapers in Berlin today assailed State Secretary Marshall of the United States as a "foe of peace."

They also criticized Foreign Secretary Bevin for his statements in the Commons in London Tuesday on proposed Russian-American talks.

The newspapers represented Marshall as rejecting Soviet desires to discuss Russian-U.S. differences. They charged he had reversed the offer of U.S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith in Moscow to hold talks and called this a blow to world peace hopes. The Washington government has said no such offer was made or intended.

NEWS FOR RUSSIANS

MOSCOW (AP)—Russian-United States relations dominated the news today in Russian newspapers and on the radio.

NO 2-POWER TALKS

The Russian people thus were told, in the Truman-Marshall story, that no two-power conference on Soviet-American relations is contemplated by the United States.

They also were told, in the Wallace story, that the third-party Presidential candidate believes there has been an "extraordinary use of the veto" in the United Nations and that he termed this "a symptom of lack of confidence between the two countries."

Most of the papers, and the radio, concentrated on Wallace's comments about the Smith-Molotov exchange.

Britain Takes Most D.P.'s

GENEVA (Reuters)—Britain has given refuge to more displaced persons than any other country, the International Refugee Organization announced here. Between July 1, 1947, and March 31, 1948, 48,685 displaced persons and refugees were accepted by Britain. Canada accepted 13,887 during that period.

Passion Play Film To Be Shown Here

Many hundreds of Victoria people will attend the Centennial United Church, Gorge Road, near Government Street, Sunday at 7.15 to 9.15 to see the beautiful motion picture film of the "Life of Christ," and the "Passion Play," entitled "Golgotha," depicting the story of Jesus, from the triumphal entry to the ascension, which is based upon the world-famous Freiburg and Oberammergau "Passion Plays" of Europe, and which was actually filmed in Europe, at a cost of $500,000. It is being brought here by the National Bureau for Religious and Educational Films.

WONDERFUL MUSIC SCORE! The film has dialogue and narrative, in English, together with an appropriate musical score, reproducing some of the world's choicest orchestral, organ, and choral music by famous composers, blending in with the magnificent scenes, which portray, in authentic and historic fashion, the life, crucifixion, and resurrection of Jesus. The film was produced in France, and has won the profound admiration and approval of thousands of the largest churches in the United States, having been exhibited to more than 1,000,000 people during the past few years, many times to overflowing audiences.

Receives Trophy

Capt. B. A. Rawson, above, director of flight development for Trans-Canada Air Lines, Winnipeg, has been awarded the McKee Trophy for outstanding contribution to Canadian aviation in 1947. It was announced by the Minister of National Defence this week. A native of Fort William, he joined the T.C.A. in 1938 after 10 years' service as a transport pilot in the United States. After two years with the newly formed Trans-Canada Air Lines he advanced to executive duties in its flight operational division. In recent years he has acted as adviser to the Canadian government on matters relating to the International Civil Aviation Organization. The award named his technical work on air navigation facilities, his international duties and his ability to co-ordinate the work of U.S. and Canadian federal and state aviation bodies in qualifying for the annually awarded trophy, most coveted aeronautical emblem in the Dominion.

Record Sitting Of British House

LONDON (Reuter)—All long session records of the Commons were left far behind today when a standing committee considering details of the bill to nationalize the British gas industry rose shortly after noon. They had been sitting for nearly 50 hours except for a brief adjournment.

It was the second all-night session for the members of Parliament who have been trying to rush through the committee stage of the bill before Parliament adjourns tomorrow for the Whitsun holiday. The committee now has ended its consideration of the bill.

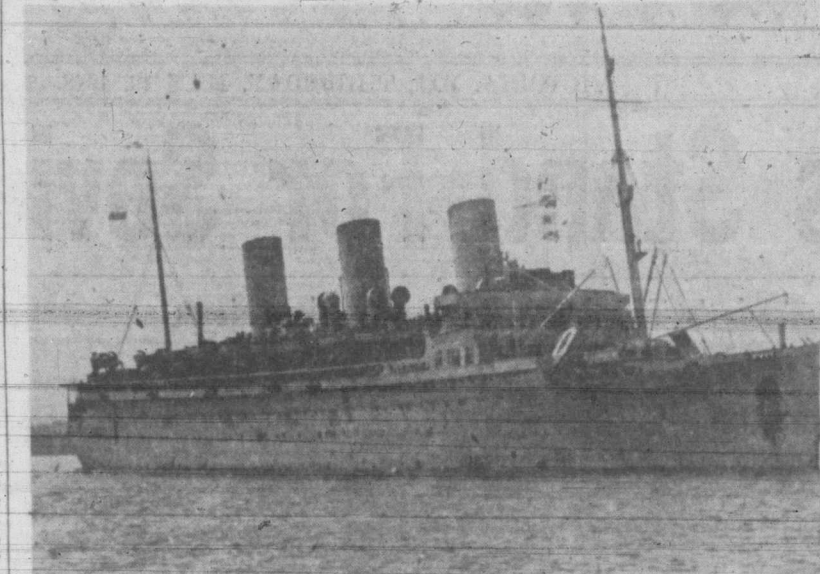

With a few members periodically falling asleep and visitors coming and going in the public gallery, the Conservative opposition, which has challenged the government on almost every clause, kept up a lively debate throughout the marathon session. The gas bill, which has already been approved in principle by the Commons, must now go before the House again for a final reading before being passed to the House of Lords.

Production By Chemical Firms Much Increased

QUEBEC (CP)—Production by Canada's chemical industries grew from a value of $28,000,000 in 1920 to $110,000,000 in 1945, Stanislas Picard, Canadian delegate to a meeting in Paris of the new chemical industries commission of the International Labor Organization, said Wednesday night.

Mr. Picard, now manager of Quebec branch of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, told a dinner meeting of unemployment insurance personnel that chemical industries in Canada now meet 75 per cent of domestic demand.

Empress Of Scotland Ends Long War Career

Still wearing her wartime colors, the Canadian Pacific's 26,000-ton liner Empress of Scotland is seen arriving at Liverpool, Eng., on completing her long and distinguished career as a troopship. Carrying 2,600 passengers, including many troops and civilians from Palestine, she is seen swinging in the River Mersey before berthing at Prince's Landing Stage. The return voyage began at Port Said with calls at Haifa, Salonika, Piraeus and Malta. Fierce fighting between Jews and Arabs was going on in Haifa during the embarkation. The Scotland is familiar on this coast as the Empress of Japan, flagship of the prewar Canada-Orient service of the C.P.S.S.

Says No Subversive Trouble In Victoria

Mayor Percy George said in a letter to Mayor George Muir of Nanaimo today that he was surprised to learn of a recent demonstration by subversive elements in the up-island city, that there never has been trouble of this kind in Victoria.

Mayor Muir wrote the Victoria Mayor inviting him to attend a public meeting he has called for Sunday evening when discussion will take place on an organized effort by about 50 men and women to prevent free speech on matters of international and national importance at a recent meeting in Nanaimo.

The Nanaimo Mayor said he was astounded at the attempt to break up the meeting and he believes it his duty to see that the matter is aired.

Mayor George declined the invitation to attend the meeting and stated:

"The demonstration of which you speak may be an isolated

Bombers To Carry Hitchhiker Jets

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States Air Force announced today it is ground-testing a tiny hitchhiking, jet-propelled fighter designed to ride as escort for super-range bombers.

The miniature fighter is the McDonnell XF-85, a radical design adapted to stowage in the bomb bay of a B-36, which is more than 10 times as large.

Known as a "parasite" because it is based aboard another air plane, the jet plane has a wing span of 21 feet and is 15 feet long. It has no landing gear other than a retractable hook ahead of the cockpit by which it can be swung down from the bomb bay for launching in flight. It "lands" by engaging the hook.

The plane can be fuelled and serviced in flight and can be jettisoned in an emergency. At the top the estimated speed of the XF-85 is around 650 miles an hour.

Blast Of Oxygen Bottle Kills 2

SEATTLE (AP) — An exploding oxygen bottle fatally injured two workmen Wednesday in the Pan American World Airways hangar shop at Boeing Field.

The victims were Kenneth Moore, 29, and Leonard Frank, 24, both of Seattle. They were dead on arrival at hospital.

They were transferring oxygen to a bottle from a larger container. Cause of the explosion is not known.

G. E. Bassett, operations superintendent for Pan American, said the bottle, known as a "walk-around," is used as an individual oxygen supply on high altitude flights.

The blast shattered Moore's chest and ripped Frank's abdomen. Pieces of metal were driven into their bodies.

Lived His Life Despite Warning

SOMERVILLE, Mass. (AP) — Three years ago Robert W. Osgood was told he had less than three years to live and to give up playing his favorite game—baseball.

However, Bob didn't think he'd live anyway and wanted to continue playing ball.

At first he was turned down for the school team by a doctor, but the youth's parents thought it better that Bob's playing be supervised and permission was granted.

He went on to become one of the greatest catchers in the school's history and was chosen on several Massachusetts all-scholastic teams in his senior year.

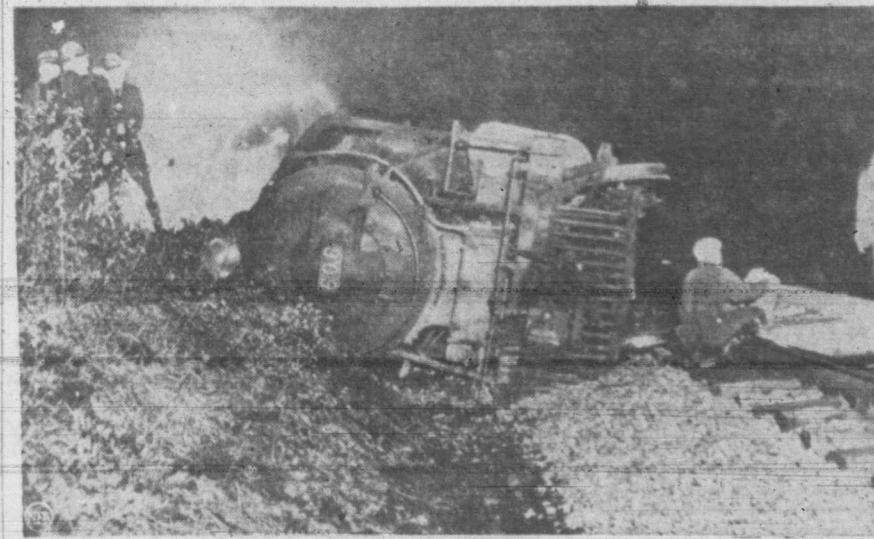

After graduating last year, he signed with Chicago Cubs of the National League and was assigned to a Fayetteville, N.C. club.

This year he was promoted to the Chicago farm in the Ohio-Indiana League, the Marion, O. Cubs.

Tuesday night he was sitting on the bench during a rainstorm which forced postponement of a game at Richmond, Ind.

He suddenly slumped over. An hour later the 19-year-old catcher was pronounced dead of a heart attack.

Valley Forge Train Wreck

The engineman and fireman of this train were killed and more than 200 passengers bruised and shaken up when the train lurched and left the tracks at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. More than 500 feet of track was torn up when the train left the tracks.

$2,000,000 Cargo Of Gold Looted

BANGKOK (AP) — The criminal investigation division announced that between 20 and 30 armed bandits Wednesday stole an international gold shipment valued at $2,000,000.

The shipment was en route to Macao from Indian on a K.L.M. (Dutch) plane that stopped at Bangkok overnight.

The bandits, disguised as Siamese police and soldiers, halted a truck carrying 120,000 grams of gold to the customs house for safe-keeping.

Nine guards were handcuffed. The bandits escaped. International air traffic from Bangkok was suspended until noon while police searched planes to prevent the gold being flown abroad.

Cincinnati Buys Danny Litwhiler

CINCINNATI (AP) — Outfielder Danny Litwhiler was obtained by Cincinnati Reds Wednesday from Boston Braves.

Warren C. Giles, president, in making the announcement said Mary Rickert, outfielder obtained from Chicago Cubs last winter, had been sent to Milwaukee in the American Association. Milwaukee is a Boston farm.

The amount of money involved in the transaction was not disclosed.

Peter Heenan, Former Minister Of Labor, Dies In Toronto

TORONTO (CP) — Hon. Peter Heenan, 73, Irish-born locomotive engineer who became federal labor minister, died suddenly at his home Wednesday after a long illness.

A veteran of Ontario and Dominion politics, Mr. Heenan was proud of his nickname, "A Son of the People." In his day he worked as a coal-miner, deep-sea diver and professional football player. In 1929, as federal labor minister, he signed the agreement which instituted old age pensions.

He was born in Tullaree, County Down, Feb. 19, 1875.

In 1902, at the age of 27, he came to Canada and settled at Kenora, Ont.

He was elected to the Ontario Legislature in 1919 as labor candidate for Kenora and was re-elected in 1922. Two years later he resigned his Legislature seat to accept nomination as a Liberal-Labor candidate for the same riding in the House of Commons. That year he represented Canada at the British Commonwealth conference.

Elected to the Commons, he was appointed labor minister by Prime Minister King in 1926. He held the portfolio until the King government was defeated in August, 1930.

During his four years as labor minister, the tall, slender Mr. Heenan became widely known as Peter the Peacemaker, a title of which he was justly proud.

When the Liberals were defeated in the 1930 election, Mr. Heenan remained in the Commons as a private member. In 1934, at the invitation of Hon. Mitchell F. Hepburn, newly-elected Ontario premier, he resigned his federal seat and was named Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests.

Still representing Kenora, he was re-elected in 1937. In May, 1941, he traded portfolios with Hon. N. O. Hipel, then labor minister, and held that position until the Hepburn government was defeated in the 1943 election.

Airliner Returns; Then Resumes Trip

PRESTWICK, Scotland (CP) — A British Overseas Airways Constellation aircraft en route to Montreal with 30 passengers aboard turned back to the Prestwick airport today when a short circuit developed and the cockpit filled with smoke.

The plane was three hours out over the Atlantic at the time.

It took off later with the same passengers aboard.

NEARING THE DEADLINE

THE ACT OF PARTITION IN PALESTINE, recommended and then halted by the United Nations Assembly, has become a fact by reason of the operations of the Jewish army. The Jews have consolidated their possession of a large section of the Holy Land and are prepared to defend it. They have a government complete with a Premier, David Ben Gurion, and a cabinet ready to take over administration on the stroke of midnight tomorrow, when the British mandate officially ceases. Every indication is that the age-old Jewish desire for a Zionist state is within a few hours of being achieved. Whether it will be permanent is another question, but there appear to be few existing factors to reverse the situation.

The U.N., having dropped its suggested plan to set up an emergency government in Palestine, has under consideration a proposal to form an international committee which would select a high commissioner. It would be this official's task to attempt to mediate between the Jews and Arabs in an effort to work out a peaceful solution. The Jews, at any rate, have little reason to fear that the U.N., most of whose members have already signified their approval of partition, will intervene with force to stop the establishment of the administration which they have formed. Their sole danger, therefore, lies in the Arab determination to oppose creation of a Jewish state. Just how effective this determination may be is becoming less clear as time goes on.

News reports from the scene of operations indicate that Hagana, the Jewish armed force, is better trained and equipped than its Arab adversaries. Although bitter fighting continues, the Jews seem to have scored telling victories and the surrender of the important Arab city of Jaffa provides the highlight of a series of similar captures. The threat of invasion of the Holy Land by armies from Trans-Jordan, Iraq and Egypt still is a potent one, however. Troops of these countries are said to be massed at the Palestine border, ready to advance on arrival of the May 15 deadline. They, too, are fairly well equipped with armored cars, artillery and a few planes. Their weakness appears to lie in the inability of Arab leaders to compose their rivalries and concentrate on co-operation to overthrow the Jews, but the onset of larger scale fighting may force cohesion upon them. Considerable face-saving might ensue from acquiescence to the United Nations request for a truce. But truce or not, partition, as far as the Jews are concerned, has become a fact.

CIVIC SERVICE RESIDENCE

PERIODICALLY THE CITY COUNCIL expresses concern and occasionally indignation over the fact that members of its different departments, drawing salaries paid by the taxpayers of Victoria, take up residence outside the city limits. Currently the firemen are under criticism. The nature of the edict passed by the council this week, however, that members of the force must live in Victoria, makes it virtually impossible of implementation under present conditions. Men who have homes elsewhere are not in a position to dispose of them and acquire expensive domicile in Victoria. If it discourages others from moving out of the city and encourages those now residing in adjoining municipalities to move in, the ruling will have accomplished its main purpose.

The question of residence outside the city, of course, has two main implications in so far as firemen are concerned. If they live at a substantial distance from their halls and transportation is of a frequency which would delay their response to emergency calls, they may be jeopardizing the efficiency of the department. That is a definite point. The second is a moral-economic question relative to loyalty and support of the city which pays them their wages. It might be expanded, with possible embarrassment, to others. And it will be noted that residence within the city is not a requirement for membership on the City Council itself.

PLEASE PASS THE SOAP

SOMETHING LIKE A QUARTER OF A century ago a widely-read weekly publication in the United States published an article describing how a considerable section of the press, completely fed up with the importunities of a public official, decided to apply what the magazine in question called the "dome of silence" to the arrogant publicity seeker. The formula evidently worked well. We recall the incident because of a dispatch from London today which relates how a person known as Lana Turner subjected half a dozen British reporters to what the Press Association calls the "most humiliating press conference yet held in Britain."

It appears that the members of the Fourth Estate were asked to present themselves at "the person's" hotel suite in the British metropolis at six o'clock yesterday afternoon. They were on time. They were told to come back in 45 minutes; they obeyed punctually. Then they were requested to return in 15 minutes; they did. "The person" greeted them with "Hello, folks," and vanished down the corridor to the suite of another actress. Thus the husband, one Topping, thought the pressmen might have had enough after they had heard his wife exclaim about the "terribly beautiful" flowers of the "English country." The two reporters who had remained to the bitter end agreed that they had had quite enough.

Admittedly, the doings of Lana Turner are of no particular interest to us, but we point to a moral in this reference to a 27-year-old youngster who is at the moment honeymooning in the United Kingdom with her fourth husband. And the moral attracts more emphasis by virtue of the fact that Tinsplate Heir Bob Topping—said husband—at the ripe old age of 34, also is on his fourth matrimonial venture. Finally, by the way, Topping's divorced wife has just linked herself to her sixth husband.

The current issue of Life magazine embellishes the Turner-Topping activities by depicting "prop-men" pinning nine dozen gardenias on latticework that formed the backdrop for the expensive wedding—Lana's trousseau is reported to have cost $30,000, "small potatoes," of course, when compared with her six-figure movie salary and her husband's tin-plate millions. But perhaps the rising generation in the United States, healthy children from wholesome homes, will have noted that in between the pages of the pictorial and obviously satirical report which Life devotes to "the incident" is an imposing advertisement extolling the virtues of a popular soap of international renown. Yes, we feel like using it, too, on the whole marital mess.

EDUCATION AND WORK

AS HUNDREDS OF YOUNG MEN AND women throughout British Columbia receive congratulations this week on their successes in university examinations, it is once again noteworthy that ex-servicemen have gained outstanding distinction. At Victoria College, for instance, the leader of the Second Year and the runner-up were formerly members of the forces. These are but two of a vast number who have resumed their academic life following the interruption of war and are now preparing themselves for useful careers.

For the majority of those who completed their sessional examinations last month, the present is a time of seasonal employment as they build up financial reserves to continue their courses next September. In some instances those seeking work have found jobs less numerous than during the years when war demands furnished opportunities for all ready to take them. Weather conditions, too, have curtailed some activities which usually furnish gainful employment at this time of the year.

The existing conditions should bring home to the undergraduates an important point. Employees will be required to show an increasing standard of ability and training as the labor situation becomes more nearly normal. Those with educational and specific qualifications will benefit. Business and industry, of course, are able and anxious to absorb those who have completed their educational preparations and can bring particular abilities and a guarantee of continuous service to the posts they take. While the students free for only five months during vacation cannot boast the latter advantage, the preference claimed by graduates should underscore the benefits of the higher education, applied or general, which they are acquiring.

This is an argument based solely on practical grounds. It does not take into consideration the less material values education can bring to the enrichment of living.

A WELCOME MOVE

ARISING OUT OF LEGISLATION passed last year, the provincial government has moved to implement by order-in-council the regulations which ban the placing of signboards and other structures near highways. It is a move which will be generally popular in a province which prides itself on its scenery and encourages tourists to come here to enjoy it. And it is highly problematical whether the advertisers will suffer much by the removal of their painted signs, since a growing public resentment over having multi-colored commercial appeals forced upon their attention while trying to enjoy the countryside has made the roadside advertising medium of increasingly doubtful efficacy.

The legislation prohibits the erection of signs, notices and similar devices within 1,000 feet of any highway, and it empowers the government to remove existing signs which do not conform with the act. Compensation will be paid in the event of removal. The highways should now be left clear of all except necessary traffic signs and directions, and a definite improvement in motoring enjoyment and safety will follow. Visitors from provinces or states where the roadsides are made unpleasant by a prolific display of gaudy advertisements will mark British Columbia as a place where the preservation of natural beauty is recognized as a public responsibility. The new regulations will have many benefits apart from the obvious one of increasing our own enjoyment.

NOTES

The first great shock to the new-rich is the discovery that money can't make some people respect them.

An educated man is one who doesn't think spoken words less true than the same words in print.

Walter Lippmann

THE UNITY OF EUROPE

"BUT OUR AIM HERE," said Mr. Churchill to the Congress of Europe, "is not confined to western Europe. We seek nothing less than all Europe."

Is this a dream? Or is it an aim which responsible governments in Europe can take seriously, and which the United States can support?

If Americans think of the unifications of Europe in terms of a federal union comparable with their own in its integration and centralization of authority, they cannot, I think, in any near future expect to see it achieved. Even the Benelux nations have not yet in fact resolved the disparities of their currencies and their prices and terms of trade. The British dilemma, as between their role in Europe and their interests in the Commonwealth and Empire, is not in sight of being resolved.

THE SENSE of a common European destiny is indeed thin and abstract as between the progressive countries of northern Europe, the Scandinavians, the Dutch and the Belgians on the one hand and on the other the countries of the Balkan and Iberian peninsulas.

Nevertheless, once every allowance has been made for the divisions, there is almost certainly a deep and growing feeling all over the continent that somehow all of Europe has a common interest in becoming an independent great power in the world. It is to this feeling that Mr. Churchill, with his genius for discerning the reality of things, addressed himself. It is the feeling, of course, that the domination of Europe, or of any large part of it, by Russia is in the end intolerable; that it would be intolerable even if Russia were not Communist, even if Russia were not a police state.

THOUGH IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to prove it, I think it is true that in eastern Europe—I am thinking particularly of Poland and Czechoslovakia—the greatest and strongest and most genuine sentiment is not pro-Communism or anti-Communism but nationalism, rooted in religion and in history, which causes almost all Poles and Czechs to identify their patriotism with membership in the community of Europe. The issue is deeper than whether industries shall be nationalized or the land redistributed, far deeper than whether they shall remain within the Russian diplomatic orbit. It is whether the regime of their lives shall conform with what they are and have been throughout their history—nations belonging to European civilization and not to an alien civilization which has had its centre in Byzantium, St. Petersburg, and Moscow.

BUT IT IS NOT ONLY this feeling that Russia is an intruder in Europe which possesses the nations of Europe. In a different way they feel also that their dependence upon America for sustenance, rehabilitation, and protection is, however necessary today, in the long run intolerable. If they cannot be slaves to Russian despotism, neither can they be the clients of the American republic. That feeling, which is general in Europe, and most emphatic among those Europeans with whom the United States is most closely associated should be welcomed. If this feeling did not exist, the best hope of the European Recovery Program would be doomed to frustration.

The unifying sentiment of the Europeans is not Socialism or anti-Communism but the will to be masters in their own continent, to be independent again, and to be not the stakes of Soviet-American diplomacy—but to be a power in their own right in order to decide the fate of Europe and the destiny of the world.

THIS SENTIMENT, which springs from their dignity and the remembrance of their historic greatness, is fortified today by the fear that if they do not intervene in the diplomatic struggle, their continent will become a battlefield on which non-European powers fight a ruinous war.

If this is indeed the sentiment in Europe, what is the chief difficulty about arousing it to action? It is the memory of Hitler's attempt to unify Europe under Nazi domination. The great task of the Congress of Europe, and of its leaders like Mr. Churchill, is to prove that Germany can be taken into the European community. They have to prove that to the Poles and Czechs and also to the west Europeans.

"UNITED EUROPE," said Mr. Churchill, "provides the only solution" of the German question—how to restore the life of Germany safely for the rest of Europe. Mr. Churchill did not on this occasion specify how this was to be done. But on other occasions he has. The solution of the German question is the admission of the German states, loosely confederated but not under a unified central government, into the larger federation of Europe.

If this view is not accepted by the British government and the American, if they persist in their present course which is taking them toward a unified and centralized Germany, this European movement for unity will founder on the cardinal error of Anglo-American policy in Germany. No peaceable settlement of the German and therefore of the European problem is conceivable, if Anglo-American policy in Germany connives at the revival of a nationalist German state.

SO IF THE UNITED STATES is really in earnest in her support of the United States of Europe, she will have to take concrete measures to re-orient the Pentagon and the Foreign Office and many of the bureaus of the State Department on their policy toward Germany.

Ah, But Can He Make Him Drink?

Noted Soldier China's Second-In-Command

CHINA NEWS BULLETIN

GENERAL LI Tsung-jen, the farm boy who started his army career as a private and ended it as a four-star general, was elected China's first vice-president under the new Constitution by the National Assembly in Nanking recently. He defeated five other contestants in the race on his reform platform, stressing increased administrative efficiency and improvement of the people's livelihood. The new vice-president has for the past two years served as director of the President's Headquarters in Peiping.

Gen. Li's political success at the election is comparable to his military achievement in the battle of Tai-chang in the last war with Japan. Early in 1938, when Japan's mighty military machine was making sweeping gains through southern Shantung after the fall of Nanking, Gen. Li, as commander-in-chief of the Fifth War Area, defeated the two crack Japanese divisions under Itagaki and Isogai and turned the tide of the war, gaining international fame as a strategist. This victory charged the whole nation with renewed faith and confidence.

EARLY POPULARITY—Gen Li's popularity dates back to his administration of Kwangsi Province. In 1928, China was loosely united under one flag. Together with Pai Chung-hsi, his lifelong friend and associate who is now Minister of National Defense, Gen. Li devoted himself to the modernization of the province. He introduced local autonomy, enforced a system of elementary education, built miles of highways, and organized the people into militia groups. In less than three years, Kwangsi produced results. It was then generally considered a model province. So in 1937, thousands of his troops stood ready to contribute to the war effort.

Born in Kwangsi in 1890 and joining the Kuomintang while still a student in the Kweiin Military Academy, General Li has been a close associate of President Chiang Kai-shek. Having fought under Generalissimo Chiang as an army commander during the Northern Expedition of 1927-28, Li made such an enviable record that he became known as "Ironside." When Japan invaded China in 1937, Generalissimo issued a call to the nation to stand behind him. Generals Li and Pai Chung-hsi were among the first to answer the Generalissimo's call.

THE U.N.'s World Health Organization has announced that it will summon the pick of the world's psychiatrists to London this summer and try to find the cause and cure of mankind's case of jitters.

Already, W.H.O. officials say, 200 organizations in this country are gathering data on the subject. And the London conference will be only the first in a series of international meetings to study global nervousness. W.H.O.'s executive secretary is quoted as declaring, "The cure must start with the individual. He's nervous and a little afraid."

NO 'NORMALS'

It is frequently said that there are not enough qualified psychiatrists in the country to care for those in dire need of treatment. This state of affairs is probably general. At the same time we feel safe in saying, despite our limited knowledge of the subject, that to the psychiatrist there is scarcely such a thing as a "normal" human being.

So how will the psychiatrists go about starting to cure the individual? And what individuals a more diversified diet, and give the treatment long enough and in sufficient doses, they can control most of the cases. But psychoses can't be controlled by such general treatment.

INSECURITY

So what will WHO do to whom? Perhaps the international psychiatrists' meetings will discover that people are nervous and fearful because there is the possibility of war—atomic, biological war in which no one is safe. Maybe they are also nervous and fearful because their jobs pay poorly, and their living costs are high, and their food is skimpy, and the prospects of improvement don't seem too good.

The cure for the last type of jitters would seem to be by statesmen, economists, businessmen and workers, not psychiatrists. That leaves the war-jitters. Now, if the world's top psychiatrist could only get Joseph Stalin, V. M. Molotov and a few others to lie down on the doctor's couch and just start talking freely about what bothers them...

Turkey Plans Ahead For Coal

Turkish Information Office

A NEW five-year plan is now in operation to increase the capacity of Turkish coal mines.

An additional five years has been added for certain areas of the Ereğli coalfields with the objective of raising the capacity from 4,000,000 tons annually to between 7,400,000 and 10,000,000 tons. New coal washing equipment will improve the quality.

The Ereğli area includes mines at Kozlu, Kandilli, Karadon, Uğulmez, and Kirecili; and American technique will play an important part in their modernization and reorganization, including a new plant to manufacture 300,000 tons of coke each year from coal dust. The port of Zonguldak is to be enlarged to load 15,000 tons of coal and unload 1,000 pit supports per day. Electricity for the new projects will be supplied by the 60,000 kw. hydro-electric plant at Catalagzi, due to begin operating this year.

The portion of the new plan to be wholly completed in five years concerns the Western Lignite Mines of Turkey covering shafts at Tuncbilek, Soma, and Değirmentepe. Here the 500,000 tons of coal produced annually will be increased to 1,350,000 tons. Some 3,000 model homes for miners and their families will be added to those already built.

MRS. W. J. COULSON, 3079 Millgrove Street.

Global Survey

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Associated Press News Analyst

Argument and speculation over the Moscow conversation between Foreign Minister Molotov and United States Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith continue to snowball without much indication of where the end may be.

What is said to have started out of an informal and private chat between the two diplomats has both hemispheres by the ears—a development which many observers attribute to smart manipulation by Molotov.

It now appears that he acted without consulting Washington in giving to the press a statement which conveyed the idea that the United States had invited Russia to a conference to discuss relations between the two countries—an invitation which the Soviet Union regarded with favor.

SENSATION

Naturally the announcement created a world-wide sensation, especially since it placed the United States in the doubtful position of initiating what might be seized on by critics as appeasement. Britain and France gave indications of being considerably miffed at not having been informed by the United States about this important move.

Washington promptly denied that any invitation had been extended, although it reiterated that the door always was open for conversations if Moscow wanted them. Even President Truman took a hand in clarifying the situation, declaring that there had been no change whatever in American policy.

Then yesterday State Secretary Marshall amplified and emphasized the American position. He stated emphatically that "this government had no intention of entering into bilateral negotiations with the Soviet government on matters relating to the interests of other governments." Such discussions "must, as a matter of course, be conducted in the body charged with responsibility for these questions," an obvious reference to the United Nations.

COUNTER-PLAY

The idea grows among observers that Molotov slipped across a hot one, which might easily have put the United States in the position of appearing as an appeaser, but which has been largely countered by quick action.

One of the most extraordinary aspects of the situation is that Foreign Secretary Bevin came to the aid of the United States with a red hot speech in Britain's House of Commons. Bevin was reported annoyed at the outset because he hadn't been informed in advance about the Molotov-Smith exchange. However, when he learned the facts he swung into action. Without mincing words he gave Moscow a dressing-down for publicizing the Russian and American statements. Said he:

"If the ambassador of a nation cannot discuss quite frankly with the foreign minister of another country without publication; if he cannot do that in order to bring the parties together, then the situation is not only intolerable, but peace is impossible."

CREATING OPPORTUNITY

London (Ont.) Free Press

Young people go south because in many lines the opportunities are greater, the scope wider, the wages higher. We cannot offset these benefits at this stage of our development. We cannot, as Mr. Stalin does in Russia, close our doors to all human expansion. Youth will always gravitate where opportunity lies. We shall retain our young people here in Canada when our opportunity is patently greater than it is in the United States, and not before.

FOR LONGER LIFE

The Times of London

It is altogether fitting that a happy fuss should be made about early birthday anniversaries, when the batsman breaks his duck, so to speak, and toddlers along towards double figures. No one can or would withhold a cheer at 21, and if the player gets within sight of his country he may surely be forgiven a few proud glances at the scoreboard. But in between—in the hard uphill work of the innings—the best batsmen do not seem to worry over much about the exact score. A man should and must remember other people's birthdays, of course, but a little fuss about his own is usually thought becoming. A certain quiet unconcern in this matter, a not-too-precise reckoning of days, is not only right and proper, it seems, but a golden rule for a good innings. After all, if a man is as old as he feels, and feels a two-year-old, why should he dash his spirits by reference to a birth certificate? If the clock watchers are a sorry crew, never much use to themselves or anybody else, can the calendar watchers be very happy company?

New Playground In Rock Bay District Opened

Out of three bush-covered city lots on Ellise Street in the Rock Bay district, Spencer's Remnants, an organization of ex-service employees of David Spencer Ltd., have made a fine playlot for children 10 years of age and under. In addition to clearing the land, the club has provided park equipment, including swings, sand boxes and parallel bars. The playlot was opened Wednesday afternoon. Taking part in the opening ceremony were Ald. Charles Banfield, second from left; Ald. Aubrey Kent, Miss Sara Spencer and Remnants president D. M. A. Murray, centre; Gordon Hartley, supervisor of summer playground activities, extreme right, and W. H. Warren, superintendent of parks, kneeling at right.

Increased Pension Cheques Going To Veterans In June

OTTAWA (CP)—Cheques covering a 25 per cent increase in war pensions will go to veterans early in June if the Senate takes quick action on legislation providing for the increase.

The legislation passed the Commons Thursday after a few opposition members had objected that the increase is inadequate. The Senate is expected to pass the measure before it adjourns Friday until June 1.

Veterans' Minister Gregg said that once the increase has been approved by Parliament, the cheques will start going out early in June to 400,000 recipients. They will cover the retroactive portion of the increase from Oct. 1, 1947, to May 31. Cheques issued at the end of June will be at the new rates.

$92,000,000 A YEAR
In the final stages, the House accepted a number of amendments that substantially bring into effect recommendations by its Veterans' Affairs committee. They involve an additional annual liability of more than $860,000 in addition to the $18,000,000 represented by the increase in basic rates. In all, Canada's pensions bill now will be about $92,000,000 and it is still going up through new or increased awards.

NEW UNIFORMS
Defence Minister Claxton said new summer uniforms had been ordered for the permanent army, but would not be delivered before late summer. He was replying to questions from George Cruickshank, Lib., Fraser Valley, about reports that the army was being issued cast-off R.C.A.F. uniforms. Some 3,000 of the 25,000 First World War veterans who obtained farms under the Soldiers' Settlement Act still owe money on their land. A return tabled for Robert Fair, S.C., Battle River, Alta., showed that $3,325,882 in principle and $116,993 in interest is still owing.

In opening proceedings, members voted 115 to 60 to give first reading to a C.C.F. bill which would authorize disclosure to parliament of information supplied by individuals or corporations in income tax returns. The bill, sponsored by Stanley Knowles, C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre, may not be touched again this session, however.

The Senate Wednesday passed a bill amending the Canada Shipping Act. It will now go to the Commons for consideration and approval.

The bill is the first large-scale amendment of the original act passed in 1932. None of the revisions, however, is of a drastic nature.

Married Women Should Not Work, Says Noted Doctor

A well-known psychiatrist says that women work because they are afraid. They do not want to compete with other women as women, as wives, mothers or home-makers. They want an "out" — a reason for being accepted on a different basis from other women. And since other people think their jobs are "glamorous" they convince themselves that they are indeed living more exciting, more stimulating lives than other women.

These women fear boredom, loneliness, saying, "I'd go nuts staying home all day."

Like that of a shepherd, the work of a housewife is solitary work by its very nature. Working women are gregarious; they would miss the people at the office. At home, there is no one to watch your entrances and exits or to comment on your appearance. There is no semi-flirtation with the handsome young men at the next desk or the big-shot down the hall.

You may read the pros and cons of whether married women should work, in the article entitled "Does Your Husband Let You Work?" in the May edition of Canadian Home Journal Magazine now on sale at your magazine dealer's.

Canadian Home Journal is distributed on Vancouver Island by Lovick's News Agency, Victoria, B.C.

Advices Members On Native Plants

"Plants require a certain balance of conditions in order to thrive," said W. H. A. Preece to the members of the Victoria Natural History Society at a meeting in Reading Room of the Provincial Library. "When this balance is upset by transplanting native plants to your garden you must make certain compensations," he went on. As examples, a woodland plant, normally growing in the shade will grow in open sun only if placed in a damp spot. Blue-eyed grass and other plants of rock habitats will thrive in the garden in a dry spot with good drainage where they will dry out in the summer.

In collecting wild plants, dig them up carefully, wash all soil away from roots and pack in damp sphagnum moss enclosing the lot in grease-proof paper. Pot in sand in a shady tray until a good fibrous root growth is produced before transplanting to the garden. Try only the common forms leaving the rarities alone. Better still, purchase your native plants from the nursery where the stock is already conditioned to cultivation.

Mr. Preece's talk was illustrated by a series of natural

Exhibitors Still Hoping B.I.F. Will Bring Canadian Business

LONDON (CP)—With the 11-day British Industries Fair scheduled to end tomorrow, many of the 3,400 exhibitors are still hoping—Canadian buyers will throw some business their way.

On the other hand, a large number who have attracted Canadian business men to their stands either have orders or are confident orders will materialize after the prospective buyers have visited their manufacturing plants.

The fact that many Canadians have gone directly from the fair to the plants where the goods are made is taken as an encouraging sign. At present more than half of the British Columbia delegation is touring industrial centres.

Because so many Canadian orders still are "in the air," it was hard to discover "solid" Anglo-Canadian transactions during a two-day tour of the 26 miles of stands comprising the fair.

But with few exceptions, exhibitors of agricultural machinery, textiles, pottery, ceramics, leather goods and chinaware remarked on the keen interest shown by more than 200 Canadian buyers.

The general view among the buyers themselves seemed to be that prices were too high for competition with Canadian and U.S. products.

The majority of Canadian visitors said the delivery dates offered were more favorable this year, but there was still uncertainty in some quarters, notably in heavy machinery. Many said they would like to place orders for luxury goods, but could not obtain import licenses.

Henry Street, general merchandise buyer for David Spencer Ltd., Victoria, said he would order household equipment such as aluminum utensils, fire-irons, coal buckets and fenders were it not for import restrictions in Canada.

"But I was able to obtain a considerable quantity of ladies' ready-to-wear dresses, which I think will sell well in British Columbia," he said.

Other members of the British Columbia delegation now in Birmingham said they hoped to place orders for various types of heavy machinery, light automobiles, bicycles, tools, textiles, ceramics and confectionery after visiting manufacturers.

Department Store Sales Up 30 Per Cent In B.C.

OTTAWA (CP)—Department store sales increased 20 per cent in April over the same month last year, the Bureau of Statistics reported Wednesday. Advances were shown in all sections of the country, with British Columbia and Saskatchewan showing gains of 30 to 25 per cent respectively. The Maritimes showed a 24 per cent advance, Quebec 16, Ontario 18, Manitoba 14 and Alberta 23 per cent.

Motor To Interior On Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick Ashton, bride and groom since last Friday, are motoring in the interior of B.C. and will make their home in Victoria when they return from their wedding trip.

Rev. T. A. Jansen read the nuptial service in Grace English Lutheran Church uniting in marriage Mary Marguerite, daughter of Mr. Peter Gorsl, 644 Speed Avenue, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ashton, R.R.3, Victoria.

For the evening, service the bride wore a white satin gown with shirred yoke trimmed with old-fashioned lace. Her floor-length veil cascaded from a heart-shaped headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white gardenias. Her matching pearl necklace and earrings were gifts of the groom.

Mrs. Virginia Brown as matron of honor for her sister, was gowned in blue tulle and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. Little Miss Shariene Ashton, niece of the groom, was flower girl, and wore a yellow net gown with mauve sash, and a wreath of yellow and mauve flowers in her hair.

John Burnett was groomsmen, and Bill Brown, brother-in-law of the bride, ushered with her brother, Dave Gorsl.

Mrs. Ashton assisted in receiving guests at a reception held in Seamen's Institute Hall.

As the young couple left on their honeymoon, the bride was wearing a two-piece blue wool dress topped by a cherry red coat. A corsage of gardenias completed her ensemble.

Flower Show—Topic of discussion at the regular meeting of Happy Valley and Luxton Women's Institute was the annual flower show, to be held at Luxton Hall July 21. Materials were distributed for sewing, and a shower of articles suitable for sale at the show will be held at the next regular meeting. In answer to a letter sent to Veteran Stage directors, S. Wales and S. Hill attended the meeting to explain why it was impossible to route their buses through town. Institute members, in conjunction with Happy Valley P.T.A. will sell hot dogs and coffee at the annual school sports day to be held in the grounds of Luxton Hall May 21. A parcel containing 20 pounds of sugar was sent to the adopted institute in England.

To Present Cup—It was decided at a meeting of Sooke and North Sooke Women's Institute to present a perpetuating challenge cup for intermediate girls baseball competition at the school. The institute will also pay rent of a hall for Brownies of the district for the month of June. Mrs. Walter Conder presided at the meeting and Mrs. G. A. Acreman reported on the initial meeting of the newly-formed Girl Guide camp. It was decided that Mrs. James Forrest should take samples of institute work to the provincial convention and members have agreed to raise talent money to augment institute funds. Next meeting will be held on June 11 and Mrs. Stella Gummow, superintendent of Women's Institutes in British Columbia, will be invited as guest speaker. Following business, Miss Gwen Jenner gave a talk on youth leadership rural training courses held by the University of British Columbia the year. Hostesses for the extension department earlier in the year. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Stanley Jones and Mrs. Jack Goldie.

Home, Married Women's Place Says Employment Director

MONTREAL (CP)—Life in the kitchen may be dull for the girl who was a working wife during the war but there's at least one woman's authority who says the place for that same wife, now that hubby's out of uniform and back in harness, is right in the kitchen.

The authority is Miss Hermine Marchessault, director of the women's section at the National Employment Service, Montreal. "I can't agree with the married women who apply for work in an ever-increasing number daily," she said today. "I can understand their desires, in some measures, but I can't agree with them."

Miss Marchessault blames the war-year habits for the increasing job demands from married women. They find the broom and egg beater prosaic implements compared to war machinery. Then, too, they liked earning their own money.

But there are disadvantages too, for the working wife. Miss Marchessault says the married woman who works outside her home will spend more on food because she must shop in a hurry; she must increase her wardrobe, pay car fare, hire a woman to do or help do the home duties and pay income tax.

In most cases it isn't worth it. Most married women seeking work want to recover financial independence or, especially when they have no children, cannot stand for 24 hours daily the sparseness of their apartments.

Miss Marchessault said women applying for work will not even agree with psychologists who claim that a married woman who works becomes the victim of nervous tension because she worries too much of what may be happening to her children while she is away.

Belmont—A meeting of the committee of Belmont Unit, Red Cross Society, will be held tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. F. Bullen, "Marshwood," Station Road.

British Women Adopt Ancient Archery Sport For Exercise

LONDON (Reuter)—Archery—most ancient, most difficult and most English sport—is today enjoying a post-war craze in Britain, particularly among women.

More than 50 societies whose membership lapsed in wartime are building up again. Sports outfitters report a boom in equipment which includes bow, waist-quiver with half a dozen arrows, armguards and leather shooting tab.

Women like toxiphily—archery's official name—because it develops graceful postures and lithe figures. Experts say no sport achieves a quicker effect on physique, powers of judgment and concentration.

But it is more strenuous than one might think. An average woman's bow needs a pull of 25 pounds. In a shooting "round" four dozen arrows are launched at a target 60 yards, and another two dozen from 30 yards. Three arrows are shot in succession from alternate ends of the range, so that the archer walks three and a half miles.

There are no professional archers in England. Archers consider themselves comrades and teach others at their clubs.

The King took up archery two years ago. He invited two members of the 270-year-old Royal Company of Archers to Balmoral Castle to teach him. The Royal Company presented him with bows and arrows which were 28 inches long and carried his racing

Button Shoes Seen As New Style For Smart Fall Wear

NEW YORK (AP)—Don't be surprised, ladies, if you find yourself wearing high buttoned shoes next fall.

Right now you may scoff at the idea, but Mabel and Charles Julianelli predict high shoes, and the chances are you'll be wearing them.

This quiet, hard-working young couple have become virtual dictators of America's feminine shoe styles during the seven years of their partnership. Each season they design "trend" shoes for a number of the country's largest shoe manufacturers. They estimate that 50,000 pairs of shoes a day are made from their designs.

For next fall and winter the Julianellis already have made a number of models, guaranteed to startle the public and recall the halcyon days of Godey's Lady Book. Says Mrs. Julianelli: "The shoe mode for next season is going to run to two extremes—high, box types or extremely open styles, each designed for a particular type of costume. Both will be high style."

The high shoes will be worn for both street and dressy afternoon occasions, says Mrs. Julianelli. The street versions will be spat types, with suede uppers and patent leather bottoms. The dressier types will be of satin or suede, either buttoned up the side or laced up the back.

Of course there will still be plenty of ordinary bread-and-butter styles for those who like their shoes conservative.

JULIANELLI CREATIONS

Among the shoe fashions previously launched by the Julianellis are: Cork clogs; the ballet street shoe; the open-heel monk's slipper; the laced-in-back shoe; the high-back shoe; the T-strap and the two-strap anklet pump; the scalloped shoe silhouette; the two-tone dance slipper, with black satin vamps and back section.

Oak Bay, Fernwood Trams Nearing Final Runs; New Routes Sunday

Oak Bay and Fernwood streetcar lines will be abandoned Sunday and at same time changes in routing of the Gonzales and Richardson bus lines will go into effect.

This was announced today by W. C. Mainwaring, vice-president of the B.C.E.R., who said the remaining Outer Wharf and Beacon Hill tram lines will be done away with by midsummer.

"We will be well ahead of the 18-month period allowed under the transportation franchise for the changing of our system from streetcars to buses," Mr. Mainwaring said.

H. R. Halls, B.C.E.R. transportation manager, said new routes have been approved by civic and municipal officials as well as the Public Utilities Commission.

The changes are:

OAK BAY BUSES

The Oak Bay streetcar line will be replaced by a bus line which will be linked with the Richardson Street line. From a loop of Newport Avenue, Central Avenue, St. Patrick Street, Beach Drive, Victoria Avenue, Windsor Road and St. Patrick Street (operating in a reverse direction to the Shoal Bay bus), the new line will proceed into town via Oak Bay Avenue, Pandora Avenue, Blanshard Street, Cormorant Street, thence south on Douglas Street to become the Richardson line.

The Shoal Bay line will also enter the city via Pandora Avenue, Blanshard and Cormorant Streets, and will proceed south on Douglas Street to become the Gonzales line.

FAIRFIELD ROUTES

The Gonzales and Richardson lines will operate over a common route from the city, via Douglas, Humboldt, Rupert Streets and Fairfield Road to Moss Street. The Gonzales route will continue along Fairfield to St. Charles Street, south on St. Charles Street, to Robertson Street to Fairfield Road, to Falkland Road, looping via Falkland, Central, Victoria Avenue, McLaren Street and return.

The Richardson line, after reaching Moss Street, will proceed via Moss, Carnes, Richardson, St. Charles, Despard, Richmond, Quamichan, Foul Bay Road, and Crescent Road to Quimper Street, returning over the same route.

The Uplands bus line will enter the city via Oak Bay Avenue and Fort Street and will be linked with the Victoria West line via Government Street. Service on this line will be increased from 20 minutes to 15 minutes with express service on the Uplands end of the line limited to rush hours.

ESQUIMALT CHANGES

On the Colville route, buses will operate over the present route to the Naval Barracks and return over the same route. On 12 trips per day, buses will proceed from the Naval Barracks via Admirals Road to Esquimalt Village and return, and on six trips per day the bus will proceed from the Naval Barracks via Admirals Road to the Esquimalt boundary near Yarrow's Road and return.

On the Munro route, service will be increased from 30 minutes to 20 minutes, and buses will operate outboard over the present route to Admirals Road at Esquimalt Road and return to the city via Esquimalt Road, Fraser Street, Munro Street, Lampson Street, Lyall Street.

Anna Wootton Wins Island Contest

Anne Wootton, Victoria College student who last month won a public speaking contest sponsored by the Knights of Pythias among Greater Victoria high school and college students, took first place honors in the K. of P. island finals held this week.

The victory gave to Miss Wootton the right to participate with regional winners from other parts of the province in the B.C. finals to be held in Victoria at the Crystal Garden, May 20, at 8.

Miss Wootton competed in the island final with Moya Martin of Port Alberni and David Cottingham of the Brentwood Boys' College.

Campbell Undecided On B.C. Speedboat Trial

REIGATE, Surrey (CP)—A spokesman for Sir Malcolm Campbell, famed automobile and boat racing driver, said today "nothing definite" had been arranged when queried as to the possibility that Sir Malcolm would visit Kelowna, B.C., to make an attempt at the speedboat record.

Gore Street, Head Street, Esquimalt Road and Johnson Street.

The Cadboro Bay feeder service will be abandoned in favor of a direct hourly service to the city with special buses providing a half-hourly service during busy periods of the day.

Late Spring Delays Seeding In Many Parts Of Dominion

OTTAWA (CP)—Seeding conditions have been "extremely variable" across Canada so far this season, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics said Tuesday in the first of its 1948 series of telegraphic crop reports covering the Dominion.

On the prairies, wet weather and low temperatures have delayed drying of the land and seeding cannot become general before May 15 to 20. Some seeding has started in Southern Alberta and Saskatchewan and at scattered points in Manitoba.

Cold, dry weather has prevailed through the Maritimes. Work on the land is general in New Brunswick, with seeding under way on well-drained soil there and in southwestern areas of Nova Scotia. Elsewhere, however, operations have been delayed.

In Ontario and Quebec, the season is more advanced than usual.

In British Columbia, a late spring has delayed operations, but warmer weather will permit rapid progress. Fruit crop prospects are reported "promising."

Mother Receives Son's Medal

The Royal Canadian Humane Society award, Silver Medal, is presented for the first time in 25 years. Mrs. C. Cummings, 965 Cloverdale Avenue, centre, receives the award from the Governor-General at Royal Roads Wednesday on behalf of her son, L. R. Whittington, Long Beach, Vancouver Island, who gave his life rescuing three sailors and attempting to save the life of a fourth when a small naval boat overturned during a mine disposal operation at Long Beach in 1946. Assisting Mrs. Cummings is Cmdr. (S.) D. McClure, R.C.N., right.

Russian Church Not In Conflict With Soviet, Says Patriarch

By DON DALLAS
MOSCOW (Reuter) — Alexei, Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, has given what is regarded here as the clearest exposition to date of relations between the Russian Orthodox Church and the Soviet state. The Patriarch answered a questionnaire which I submitted. Following is a summary of questions and answers:
Q. In view of the various misconceptions abroad about the position of the church and state in Russia today, can you define the position of the Russian Orthodox Church in the Soviet Union today?
A. We also know many misconceptions exist abroad regarding the position of the Russian church with relation to the government; they are being spread by part of a press which, with definite political purpose, is carrying on a campaign of lies and insinuations in respect of our Soviet Union and our church. The Russian Orthodox Church in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics everywhere enjoys a favorable attitude on the part of the government and great attention to its needs.
MAKE USE OF RIGHT
Q. Is the church completely free to organize its own internal affairs?
A. This is an inalienable right of our church and it widely uses it.
Q. Can you say "freedom of religion" has been achieved in Russia?
A. Freedom of religion is guaranteed by the constitution of the Soviet state.
Q. What is the number of believers in the Soviet Union and has it grown since the outbreak of war?
A. Owing to the separation of the church from the state and freedom of religion we have not, as was the case of Russia previously, any registration lists of believers... church communities have not decreased numerically, but to the contrary, are increasing; equally as are the number of churches.
Q. Is there any conflict between the theory and practice of communism on the one hand and religious belief on the other?
A. The question is not clear. The Orthodox Church has no conflicts whatsoever within the Soviet state.

Wins B.A. Degree

ROBERT E. JONES
A former school teacher and veteran of four and a half years' service with the R.C.A.F., Robert E. Jones, third son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jones, 1135 McClure Street, has won his Bachelor of Arts degree in chemistry at the University of British Columbia. Jones attended Boys' Central, Victoria High, Victoria College and Normal School and taught for several years before enlisting in the R.C.A.F. He returned to his studies soon after his discharge from the air force. Married to the former Lorraine Willey of Victoria, he will remain in Vancouver to attend the summer session at U.B.C.

May 19 Date Set For Real Estate Annual

Annual meeting of the Real Estate Board of Victoria will be held at the Empress Hotel May 19 at noon.

The meeting's agenda includes the president's report, installation of the incoming executive committee and officers, appointment of an auditor and receiving and adopting annual reports.

Emmy Goering Indicted

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Emmy Goering, widow of the Reichsmarschal, was indicted Wednesday as a major offender under the denazification law. Frau Goering is in jail near Augsburg. She is charged with "profiteering" from Nazi connections. Her husband, Herman Goering, committed suicide in 1946 in the Nuernberg jail a few hours before he was to have been hanged as a war criminal.

No Visible Effect Left By Leduc On Western Oil Stocks To Date

By CANADIAN PRESS

The threat of major damage to Alberta's Leduc oil field holds attention until the fire hazard caused by a wild well has been removed.

In the meantime production is stopped in the field so that all facilities may be devoted to draining off the accumulated oil from the surface.

The waste of gas while the well is out of control causes some concern, too, as it affects the oil recovery potential. Decision to close down production to concentrate on the fire hazard came Wednesday, but the well had been causing difficulty for some days with no visible effect on western oil quotations up to Wednesday's stock market close.

11, 1947. Industrial, rail and utility averages all established new 1948 highs.

In Toronto base metals, which have been given strength by rearmament proposals, continued hesitant on talk of easement of strain between the United States and Russia. All sections of the index declined slightly. In Montreal selected issues made gains and the industrial index touched a new high for the year of 129.3, up .9. Papers also were up, while banks, utilities and golds were off.

Grain made good gains in Chicago and Winnipeg, with the May rye future advancing the 10-cent limit in Winnipeg. New York cotton futures closed $1.90 a bale higher to 20 cents lower.

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Irvin Steen, 143, San Diego, Calif., outpointed Charley Salas, 142, Phoenix, 10. BANGOR, Me. — Melio Bettina, 202, Beacon, N.Y., stopped Jackie Fisher, 210, Waterville, Me., 5.

Local Committees Set Up To Mark World Trade Week

Local committees are being set up to arrange programs for the marking of World Trade Week in Canada May 30 to June 5, it was learned today.

World Trade Week is timed to focus attention on the International Trade Fair at Toronto and to emphasize the importance of world trade to every citizen of Canada.

The week will be observed by service clubs, in schools and other organizations and the Department of Education, banks, railroad companies and local boards of trade are co-operating in working out programs. The field service of the regional development division of the Department of Trade and Industry is being used as a liaison in the outlying areas, in co-operation with the members of the provincial committee and local boards of trade.

A statement from the office of the trade commissioner at the Parliament Buildings said today that encouraging reports have already been received from Victoria, Vancouver, New Westminster, Nelson, Trail, Creston, Prince George and Vernon.

Sponsors of the week include the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, the Canadian Exporters' Association, the Canadian section of the International Chamber of Commerce and the Canadian Importers and Traders' Association. A national committee in Toronto has been set up in co-operation with provincial business organizations.

The provincial committee, aimed at directing local committees in the principal centres, is headed by R. S. O'Meara, trade commissioner for B.C. T. L. Sturgess of the trade and industry department, is secretary; and members of the committee include J. T. Gawthrop and H. C. Holmes of Victoria.

Billboards Limited

The Provincial government is moving toward elimination of much advertising on the highways of the province.

An order-in-council approved Tuesday says no person, without a permit, "shall erect or replace signs or signboards or shall paste or paint signs or notices or expose any advertising devices within a distance of 1,000 feet from any main-traveled centre line of any public highway within the unorganized territory of the province."

The order is aimed to protect the new highways of the province from unsightly bill boards and other advertisements.

Previously it was necessary to obtain a permit to erect a billboard on the highway right-of-way. The latest order makes it necessary to obtain a permit when erecting a sign beyond the right of way.

Works Minister E. C. Carson indicated today that the government probably would not attempt to try to remove already erected signs in this category but would regulate erection of future signs and replacement of these signs through its licensing powers.

Australian Tours

O. H. Heinrich, a member of the State Advisory Board of Agriculture in South Australia, left for Vancouver yesterday after studying agricultural methods on Vancouver Island before proceeding to other localities in eastern Canada.

The farm expert arrived here Tuesday and conferred with Dr. J. B. Munroe, deputy minister of agriculture, W. R. Gunn, head of the livestock branch, and other agricultural technicians. The meeting was chiefly confined to discussing Canadian farm machinery, field crop methods and livestock.

Wednesday Mr. Heinrich left with J. L. Elbert, manager of the Shell Oil Co. depot here, to visit farms in Saanich municipality. He showed particular interest in livestock farming in the district.

Mr. Heinrich will leave Vancouver for the prairie provinces. He will also take a trip to the United States before visiting the provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

Odd Fellows lodges of Victoria, Columbia No. 2 and Victoria No. 1, will be hosts to brothers of Arrowmuth Lodge, Port Alberni, and Duncan Lodge, No. 17, on Saturday when a fraternal visit will take place, and a special meeting held. Degrees will be conferred and a social evening spent afterwards.

Pleading guilty to a charge of being in possession of a stolen wrist watch, the property of Robert Duncan, William Drinkle was fined $50 in city police court Wednesday by Magistrate H. C. Hall. He was represented by Joseph McKenna, Detective J. Woodburn giving the circumstances.

CHAMPIONS of Canada but eliminated from consideration as basketball representatives of the Dominion in the Olympic Games. That is the odd position the Vancouver Clover Leafs find themselves in following that two-point defeat at the hands of the Montreal Y.M.H.A. Monday night. The set-up is hard to understand. If a team can travel across the country, eliminate the champions of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba en route and then knock off the best in the east it certainly should be good enough to represent this country at the Olympiad.

TO CROWN IT ALL the Clover Leafs are forced to risk the Olympic trip on a sudden-death game. Anybody who knows anything at all about sport will agree that one game is not a fair test. A team can blow either hot or cold in any one contest. True, the Leafs could have stood some strengthening for the trip to London, but why rob the entire team personnel of a chance to participate in the greatest sport extravaganza of all? The whole scheme has a familiar eastern odor.

SOME IDEA OF just how fast a two miles Victoria's Cliff Salmond clocked off at Vancouver last week-end when he established a Canadian record of 9:41.6 is seen by the fact that in a coast conference northern division meet between teams from the universities of Washington and Idaho the two mile event was won in 9:53.7 and that time established a new mark for the event. Of course the boys are still a long way from the world's two mile record of 8:42.8 established by that Swedish machine, Gunder Haegg, in 1944.

ODDITY OF THE WEEK—Watching a runner in a softball game being waved by the umpire from second base to third and from third to home on the strength of two illegal pitches on the part of the opposing hurler. If such a ruling is according to Hoyle as laid down by the Western Canada Softball Association it's high time somebody got busy and gave the rules a good going over. In the same game a batter takes a healthy swing at an offering and it's called a ball because the pitch was illegal. What would have happened if the batter had singled? Would he have been brought back or would the hit have been allowed?

A's Streak Broken; Play Yakima Tonight

Their winning streak cut off at five straight as the result of an 8 to 3 defeat suffered at the hands of Salem Senators Wednesday night, Victoria Athletics were set to start another one tonight at the expense of Yakima. The A's and Packers will open a four-game Western International League baseball stand. For the opener Manager Ted Norbert will start either Dal Owens or Joe Blankenship.

Appearing to suffer from too long a layoff, Larry Ward was not sharp. Shooting for his third straight mound win the big right-hander was hit hard in the early innings as Salem built up a 3 to 0 lead and then was subjected to some miserable support from his infield. Of the six runs scored off Ward, four of them were earned. He gave up nine hits, struck out six and walked three. Southpaw Art Kuehl finished up after Ward was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the seventh and gave up two more runs but was both unearned as infield boots put him in a hole in the eighth.

A's infield had a bad night with shortstop Mike Dalton and third-sacker Babe Jensen each charged with a pair of bobbles and first baseman Paul Jones committing a fifth error. Jensen, who has been having trouble handling ground balls so far this season, looked bad as a couple of rollers handoutfied him.

Defeat dropped the Athletics back into a tie for fifth place with the idle Yakima club, while Salem moved back into the fourth slot. The Senators boast more wins than any other club in the circuit. The local game was the only one to survive rain and wet grounds last night.

Jokers, Tillicums Rate As Threats For Boxla Crown

Jokers and Tillicums, other two Victoria teams in the five-team senior lacrosse league which officially gets under way at Stevenson Memorial Park tonight, could well be classed as the untried clubs of the loop although both will dress teams of potential power.

Tonight's opener at 6:30 finds James Bay meeting Foul Bay. Saturday, Jokers will pry off the lid at Nanaimo's inaugural game. Co-coaches Roy Woolsey and Bill Andrews of Jokers in an attempt to better last year's club have signed a number of last season's Tillicum team. These together with a nucleus of the '47 Jokers plus a few transfers from other clubs should put the squad in a strong contending position for league honors.

Andrews himself will guard the nets with Woolsey handling the team from the bench. Alan Rhodes, Ray Thomas, Murray Scotney, Tommy Joyce and Mason Sheldrake are listed as defencemen with Ralph Temple and Jackson Walker—last season with Foul Bay—as rovers.

Fred Fellow and Larry Booth will play the centre position with Angus Stewart, Gordie Ellis, Red McMillan, Ray Douglas, Cliff Scrogie, Don McLenhan and

19 Teams Enter Saanich Softball

At an organization meeting last night 19 teams signified their intention of joining the Saanich and Gulf Islands Softball League.

Five teams will compete in the senior B division with the other 14 competing in the junior division and down.

The meeting voted in favor of the B.C. Association Injured Players' Fund and the 3 per cent deduction from gates for minor development.

Schedules will be released later in the week. Play starts Sunday.

No Further Word On Hockey Expulsions

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League says permission must be obtained from Michigan's Governor Kim Siler before facts concerning the expulsion from hockey of Billy Taylor and suspension of Don Gallinger can be released.

"It would jeopardize all concerned if the information was released now," said Campbell yesterday. Gallinger had been told the reason for his suspension and a full statement would be made before the outset of the 1948-49 season.

Low-Hit Games Mark Juvenile Baseball

Two low-hit pitching jobs, a one-hit masterpiece by Tony Bishop of Poodie Dog Cafe and a two-hitter by Ronnie MacLeod of Eagles, highlighted games in the juvenile division of the Minor Baseball Association last night.

Bishop tossed his one-hitter at Tillicums in the cafenets' 4 to 0 shutout victory while MacLeod coasted to a 10 to 4 triumph over Fletcher's.

Tim Walker's double with Roy Legge on the paths accounted for Poodie Dog's first run in the fifth inning. Winners scored three runs in the sixth to cinch the contest.

In a bantam game James Bay Merchants whipped Oak Bay, 23 to 11.

Organize Juvenile Softball League

Five teams will play in the juvenile boys' softball league it was announced following an organization meeting last night.

Games will take place Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting next Thursday. Two Pats will meet Page Cleaners in the opening game at Colville Road at 7.

Other teams in the circuit include C.C.Y.M., Esquimalt and Y.M.C.A.

Douglas Tire Run Win Streak To Four Games

Halting a three-game winning streak by Timber Service and running their own string to four consecutive games, Douglas Tire softballers last night took over first place in the men's senior A mushball loop with a 7 to 1 win over Lloyd Jones' nine.

Ken Gunter of Douglas Tire and Joe Bryant of the timbermen, rival hurlers, came up with a real pitchers battle for the first five innings but in the sixth the roof caved in on Mr. Bryant, when the tremen exploded for four runs.

Timber Service took the lead in the second inning with Mickey Smith's double driving in the marker, and that was all the scoring until Bryant blew up.

Ray Byers started the uprising with a double. Hen Harris then drilled another two-bagger. Toad Garnett singled and Bryant walked the next man leaving the bases loaded and the score tied at 1 to 1 and nobody out.

Two free passes to first, an outfield fly and an infield forced play gave Douglas Tire another three markers and what proved to be the game.

Six Dominion Records Fall To Flying 'Y' Swim Club

Six Canadian swimming records fell by the boards at the Y.M.C.A. pool last night as coach Archie McKinnon's Flying "Y" swimmers opened an assault on existing marks in the first of three scheduled time trials.

Second and third trials are slated for Saturday and Wednesday.

Doug Stewart, young junior star, cracked the 100 and 400-yard junior breaststroke records. Although beating the 100-yard mark, Stewart's new time of 1:08, which bettered Peter Salmon's old record of 1:06.6, was six seconds short of Salmon's recent effort at Seattle.

In the 40-yard breaststroke, Stewart also erased another of Salmon's marks, eclipsing the old record of 22.6 by six-tenths of a second.

FREESTYLE MARK FALLS

Salmon himself came in for a share of the record-breaking performances by clipping one second off the 100-yard freestyle mark. Salmon's time was 52.2 seconds.

In the odd 400-yard distance, Bill Doddridge erased teammate Gordie Lawrence's mark of 4:56.2 with a new time of 4:53.2.

Eric Jubb and Joan Morgan compiled the other new times. Jubb cut Ted Wilson's 50-yard backstroke record down to 27.8 seconds, the old mark being 29.6. Miss Morgan took a full second off Hamilton's Bernice Belbeck's record of 6:22 for the 400-yard backstroke. The former mark was 6:22.

Pitching Stars Suffer Rough Treatment In Major Baseball

NEW YORK (AP)—The pitching stars of 1947 are in for a rough time this year, if their early season performances are a criterion.

A half dozen hurlers managed to win 20 or more games last year. This exclusive list included Bob Feller, Cleveland; Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati; Ralph Branca, Brooklyn; Larry Jansen, New York Giants; and Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain, Boston Braves.

Not one of this group of big winners has looked like the pitcher he was in 1947.

Here are their records thus far:

Blackwell—Two wins and three losses. Kayoed in four of five starts.

Feller—Three wins and two losses—completed only two of five starts.

Branca—Two wins and three losses. Kayoed in three of four starts.

Jansen—Three wins and one loss. Kayoed in three of five starts.

Spahn—One win and two losses—kayod in two of three starts.

Sain—Two wins and two losses. Completed three of five starts.

Rough starts also are being experienced by such 1947 stars as Hal Newhouse and Dizzy Trout, Detroit; Joe Dobson and Dave Ferriss, Boston Red Sox; Frank Shea and Ed Lopat, New York Yankees; George Munger and Murray Dickson, St. Louis Cardinals; Dutch Leonard, Philadelphia; Kirby Higbe and Vic Lombardi, Pittsburgh; and Mickey Haefner, Washington.

Some are inclined to blame the pitchers' decline on the lively ball. That may be so, but how do you account for the fact that the Cardinals' Harry Brecheen has slung three shutouts in three starts; that the Phillies' Ken Heintzelman has pitched two scoreless games in two outings; that the Giants' Dave Koso has allowed only one earned run in three games and that the Yankees' Allie Reynolds has twirled five straight winning games, all complete.

Newhouse and Blackwell have been the biggest disappointments. Newhouse is in the midst of a four-game losing streak after taking the season's opener.

Blackwell has bogged down completely after winning his first two starts. He has been kayoed in four straight outings.

Mack's Makeshift A's Capture 10th Straight

Connie Mack's collection of draftees and hand-me-downs are showing up the rich major league clubs with a 10-game winning streak. His Philadelphia A's are upholding the old theory that you can't buy a pennant.

While Tom Yawkey of Boston Red Sox was writing cheques for some $350,000 Mack was busy scanning the draft lists. By the studious avoidance of any large outlay of cash, the venerable old gentleman has acquired quite a ball club.

Still the A's win and handily, too, although they did have to struggle to achieve an 8 to 1 victory over St. Louis Browns Wednesday night. Three hits and four walks added up to six runs for Philadelphia in the second inning.

Rain washed out the Yankee stadium meeting of Cleveland and New York with the Yanks leading 3 to 1 in the home half of the fourth. There were 63,802 in the stands.

Detroit staged two big innings to down Washington 14 to 9, although Hal Newhouse was knocked from the box for the fourth straight time. Dizzy Trout, third of four pitchers, notched the victory.

Bobby Doerr's three-run homer in the 10th inning enabled Boston to grab a 6 to 5 game from Chicago in dramatic fashion. The dreary White Sox, trying to snap a losing streak, had scored twice in the top of the inning only to have Doerr snatch the game out of their grasp.

The White Sox have not won a game this month, losing eight of nine starts. The other was a tie game.

In the National League Blix Donnelly of the Philadelphia Phils handed the Pittsburgh Pirates their first shutout of the year, 5 to 0, allowing only three hits. He was in control all the way with the help of Johnny Blatnik, the rookie outfielder, who had a perfect fourth hit day.

Hank Sauer unloaded his seventh homer, a three-run blast in the last of the ninth, but it wasn't enough as his Cincinnati Reds bowed to Brooklyn 9 to 7 in a night game.

Joe Hatten, the first of four Dodger pitchers, was the winner over Johnny Vander Meer but Leo Durocher had to whistle to the bull pen for Hugh Casey to end it in the ninth.

Holder Celebrates Tribute Night In Great Fashion

It was Brooks Holder night at Wrigley Field when Oakland whipped Los Angeles last night. There were no advance preparations, no speeches, but Brooks decided to have a night. And what a night!

The veteran outfielder just about single-handedly won the ball game. The final score was 5 to 3. Brooks came to bat in the fifth inning with the Angels leading, 2 to 0, by virtue of Eddie Malone's homer with one on in the second. He caught one of Walt Lafronconi's hooks and slammed it out of Wrigley Field, scoring Gene Lillard, Lloyd Christopher and Damon Hayes ahead of him.

Nick Etten then tripled and came in when Don Dalesandro dropped Les Scarsella's long fly ball. The last run wasn't needed, as the Angels could score only once in the ninth. Twice before they had started innings with triples but couldn't get the man in.

The Angels dropped three full games behind San Francisco because the Seals pinned Hollywood's shoulders to the mat again in San Francisco, 4 to 3, in 10 innings.

Trick Shot Team Amazes Victorians

By ROY THORSEN

Many a local wise old head of games trails marksmanship in the mixed crowd of more than 500 yesterday afternoon added a hearty contribution to the enthusiastic applause as they watched a visiting husband-wife professional shooting team go through a versatile bag of tricks depicting amazing accuracy.

Scene was the Victoria Gun Club grounds, Albert Head Road and centre of attraction were Dot and Ernie Lind. They hail from Springfield, Mass., and are on a 10-month tour demonstrating shooting wizardry.

Russell B. Horton, president of the host club in the show, introduced the visitors, rated America's No. 1 exhibition shooters, successors to the internationally famous man-wife combination of Ad and Pinksy Topperwein. As a token of esteem from members, Horton presented the sharpshooters with club gold buttons and crests for shooting jackets. He also introduced W. R. "Bill" Wood, Seattle district manager for Winchester Repeating Arms and Western Cartridge Companies, sponsors.

It was a thrill-packed entertainment from the first shot fired to the last, the modern edition of Annie Oakley a particular target of interest to the many wives of sportsmen and other women in the gallery. Dottie's coolness and efficiency in handling man-sized shooting-irons showed that the female, if she wishes, can coach herself to operate with guns just as casually as the male.

They handled large and small-bore shotguns and rifles, pistols and revolvers with such ease and threw lead so accurately from almost every conceivable position, the whole being looked like mere child's play.

Throughout, Ernie kept up a running chatter describing features of each weapon used, the power and accuracy of modern firearms and offering safety advice—all this without pausing in his movements.

With one of his high-powered rifles Ernie Lind a half second after the cameraman had closed the shutter, made cold slaw out of the cabbage head he tossed into the air.

Some of the fantastic things they did:

At 40 feet, Dottie cut a playing card almost in half, blasted a moth ball, a piece of chalk, a button and an aspirin with a small-bore rifle mounted with a telescope sight. Her back to the target, pistol upside down over the shoulder and a mirror for a guide, she got another bull.

Mrs. Lind pulverized clay pigeon targets heaved for her, to either side, in front and behind, even knocked them over lying flat on her back or on her side and proved a "dead-eye" with a pistol sight made useless by sticking a piece of cardboard in front of the muzzle.

Ernie, using a repeater shotgun, propelled shells being ejected from the gun to in front of the muzzle and shot them up. He showed how to mince tossed cabbages, fruits, and other objects, make small wooden cubes, washers of any size and tin cans dance in the air with repeated shots, exhibited "quick draw" tactics and a great many other pleasing marksmanship feats.

SOME SALMON ARRIVE

Saanich Inlet pros report some salmon have finally shown up. The fishing situation is labeled as "spotty." Lots of feed for the salmon in the arm, evening fishing best.

E. E. W. "Doc" Smith hit the jackpot Sunday evening with a visiting party. In Indian Bay waters the group took 14, 8 and 6-pound springs, fishing light, only six ounces of weight. Other Sunday catches: Carl, Boom, six small blues; Tuesday evening Jack Goulding and Jim Moraes took a 12-pounder and a small jack. Same night Capt. A. C. Cruchley netted a nine-pounder. All taken at Indian Bay except one off Sandy Beach. Two Hancock scores of limits of trout on the fly from the trestle to the upper bass pool in Cowichan River this week indicates the river is a good bet now, as is Shawnigan and many other smaller lower island lakes and streams at this time if weather is reasonable.

Louis Celebrates 34th Birthday

BLOOMINGDALE, Mich. (AP)—Joe Louis, training here for defence of his world heavyweight championship against Jersey Joe Walcott in New York June 23, threw off diet restrictions today to celebrate his 34th birthday.

Louis' chef for 15 years, Bill Bottoms, prepared a 30-pound turkey, plus all the trimmings, and a four layer cake for the champion's party to which all camp personnel were invited.

Heaney's first division juvenile provincial soccer champions will play an exhibition game in Seattle Saturday. All players are requested to report to the C.P.R. wharf tomorrow at 5.

Need For Young Men In Politics Says Junior Chamber President

More hats of younger men are needed in the Canadian political ring in the opinion of Don McKay, national president of the Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce, who is now in Victoria to take part in the B.C. regional conference of the Junior Chamber movement, which gets under way tonight.

"There is a definite place in government for the young," he said in an interview today. "I believe there is a need for this to be realized and for more young men to participate actively in civic administration."

The 34-year-old radio broadcasting executive, who himself holds a seat on the Calgary city council, stated: "There would be a much better standard of government if our young men got into office, and trained themselves by actually taking part."

STARTED YOUNG

The famous Canadian statesmen Laurier and Macdonald, and America's Franklin Roosevelt all held high government posts before they were 30, Mr. McKay noted. "Yet, whenever the names Laurier and Macdonald are mentioned today, people immediately think of elderly men with beards."

He said he felt Calgary was ahead of most other Canadian cities in being willing to accept young men as aldermen. Of the 12 seats on the Calgary council, three are taken by men under 35. Besides himself, there is one alderman 29 and another 32.

"Ability, application and initiative are the guiding factors, not the aim of an individual," he said.

Now on a cross-country tour, attending provincial Junior Chamber conferences, Mr. McKay says he is attempting to sell Canada to Canadians.

"Canadians are inclined to think provincially," he said. "And I believe the spirit of provincialism must give way to a spirit of nationalism."

"Good-natured rivalry between east and west is a healthy situation. But when speakers go around talking about secession, we have a serious problem."

"We must have nationalism—nationalism of a desirable type, of course."

Turning to current Junior Chamber activities, Mr. McKay said the number one project of the moment is the promotion of Canada as a tourist playground.

During a recent trip through part of the U.S., he said he found many persons believing the Canadian austerity program was far more serious than it is. "Some actually thought Canadians had their backs to the wall."

Steps must be taken to correct this impression, he said, and the Junior Chamber in Canada is planning such steps.

"The American Junior Chamber at its annual convention last year in Long Beach criticized our chamber for not doing a good sales job for our country. We accepted this challenge and at their next convention (to be held in Philadelphia in June), we are going to talk Canada until they get fed up with us."

150 TO ATTEND

About 150 Canadian delegates will attend this convention. Barbara Ann Scott, world figure skating champion, will also attend, and will be crowned queen of the American Junior Chamber.

Annual convention of the Canadian Junior Chamber will be held in Winnipeg June 17.

Membership in the Junior Chamber movement in Canada has doubled in the last five years, Mr. McKay said. There are over 30,000 Junior Chamber members in this country in branches in over 200 communities. The Junior Chamber movement now operates in 47 countries in the world.

Largest single branch in Canada is in Montreal. The branch there has 3,500 French-speaking members.

Committee Arranging Trade Week Programs

R. S. O'Meara, provincial trade commissioner, heads a provincial committee aimed at directing local groups in arranging programs for the marking in British Columbia of World Trade Week May 30 to June 5. Service clubs, schools and other organizations will observe the week with programs being worked out with the co-operation of the education department, banks, railroad companies and local boards of trade.

Scout, Cub Rally And Dinner Ends Vice-Regal Visit

Inspection of an afternoon scout and cub rally, with Greater Victoria Girl Guides providing a guard of honor, and an official dinner at Government House Wednesday evening marked the end of a two-day visit to Victoria by the Governor-General of Canada and his wife, Lady Alexander.

An assembly of 2,000 scouts, clubs and guides crowded the Government House grounds to greet His Excellency, Canada's chief scout.

Lining the driveway was the girl guide guard of honor under Mrs. Freeman King and Mrs. F. R. Midgely. The chief scout moved down the youthful ranks, stopping briefly to speak to some of the youngsters and to meet the leaders. Accompanying him were Lieutenant Governor Charles A. Banks, Capt. J. D. Chichester, Clark of the Irish Guards, aide-de-camp, and Maj. H. B. Hunter, district scout commissioner.

Among scout officials present at the rally were Fred Hall, president of the Greater Victoria Scout Association; Brig. J. M. Rockingham, vice-president, and Alex Hardy, treasurer.

Prior to the arrival of the chief scout at the rally a five-year service bar was presented to a 20-year veteran, scouter, Col. R. D. Dopping-Hepensal, Duncan district commissioner, by Provincial Scout Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons, and "Glilwell" beads were presented to scouter Roy Brain by Maj. Hunter.

5 Victoria Firms In New Companies

Rental Regulations Infraction Draws $50 Fine In Court

Ernest H. M. Foot, solicitor, was found guilty of violation of the household rentals regulations of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board by Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today. He was fined $50 and $250 costs.

E. S. Farr represented the Crown and George F. Gregory was defence counsel.

Evidence presented was that accused served notice on persons using rooms and living quarters in the Stobart Building to vacate, including a suite occupied by the Misses F. and V. Bramwell and a single unit by George Gallop.

On March 8 last controls on commercial accommodation were removed, but not on premises used to live in.

Mr. Foot testified: "When I served notice to vacate, I did so, because I believed similar types of buildings in the city with housekeeping rooms had given occupants notice to vacate."

Mr. Gregory said his client did not think he was violating the regulations. "He is an owner of a lot of real property and with the regulations changing from week to week it is awfully difficult not to trip over one of them," counsel said.

Mr. Farr contended defendant wanted the rooms to use for commercial accommodation. Mr. Foot told the court the building had 81 rooms. There are 16 tenants using rooms for housekeeping purposes and the rest are used for offices and other commercial accommodation.

Crown counsel told the court accused was convicted on infractions of the rentals regulations—but not of the same nature as these—once in 1943 and another in 1944.

A $40 fine and a three-month suspension of his driver's license was imposed against Edgar Waring in city police court today when he pleaded guilty to a charge of dangerous driving on Gorge Road in the earlier hours of this morning.

Charge arose out of a collision his car was in with a power pole at Manchester Road in which a passenger, Leslie Coulter, 1133 Yates Street, was taken to hospital by city police suffering from lacerations to the head. He was first taken to Jubilee and later transferred to St. Joseph's where attendants reported his hurts as not serious.

Constable A. Newsome told the court accused struck a pole and came to rest 150 feet beyond it. The pole was not damaged, but over $50 worth of damage was done to a fender.

Mr. Waring's plea for no license suspension on the grounds it was his only means of transportation, brought the comment from Magistrate H. C. Hall: "You apparently can't be trusted with your means of transportation."

Government To Pay City More For Public Health Services

Increased public health grants by the Department of Health and Welfare were announced today by Dr. G. F. Amyot, Provincial Health Officer and deputy minister of health.

In a letter to the City Council, Dr. Amyot said the city will be relieved from paying $7,000 a year to the Royal Jubilee Hospital for public health laboratory tests as the provincial government is supplying $15,000, which will pay for full operations of the laboratory.

He suggested that the council might consider reallocating the $7,000 to the Union Board of Health to help pay for increased health services.

The provincial government is prepared to increase its grants to the city and Esquimalt for improved services, he said. The city will receive $9,500 annually instead of $6,000, and Esquimalt will get $1,980 instead of $1,295, under proposals being considered.

These increases, he said, will be paid on condition that the Union Board of Health submit for approval by his department an estimated budget for 1948 plus an itemized account of expenditure last year and a list of positions filled at present.

Dr. Amyot wrote: "Additionally this department would welcome an opportunity to discuss with the Medical Health Officer (Dr. J. L. Gayton)

The Complete Plant Food

Contains all the growth elements needed to produce top yields of sturdy vegetables. In the flower garden, it produces larger, more brilliant blooms, adds strength to plants by promoting stronger root growth. Use GARDENITE at planting time, once or twice again during summer.

GARDENITE is especially valuable as a top-dressing for lawns. It makes grass richer-colored, harder and more resistant to summer drought. 1-lb., 5-lb., and 10-lb. packages; 25-lb., 50-lb. and 100-lb. bags.

PROTECT BEFORE YOU PLANT. Treat all seeds with SEMESAN Seed Disinfectant (use SEMESAN BEL for seed potatoes, ARASAN for corn and peas). C-I-L Seed Disinfectants protect seeds, corns, roots and tubers against a wide variety of seed-borne diseases—decay and damping-off. Particularly effective when soil is cold and wet just after planting.

KILL WEEDS

"HERBATE"

(2,4-D IN PILL FORM)

Here is the famous 2,4-D Weed Killer in handy, easy-to-use pill form. It's selective—kills the weeds, but not the grass. Just dissolve one "HERBATE" pill in 2 quarts of water and you have enough solution to kill weeds in 100 square feet of average lawn. No fussy mixing and measuring. Comes in convenient cellophane-wrapped packages of 20 pills.

KILL POISON IVY WITH "AMMATE"

Only one application of "AMMATE" is needed to kill roots and foliage of poison ivy. Also highly effective on poison oak, sumac and other tough growths. Ideal for weeding driveways, paths or walks. Not for lawns. In 2-lb. jars.

For household insect pests

RIDSECT HOUSEHOLD DDT SPRAY. You simply brush it on screens, or spray it over other surfaces. Sure kill for flies, mosquitoes, gnats, bedbugs, moths, fleas, carpet beetles, etc.

Contains 5% DDT for lasting effect, pyrethrum for quick action. Not only kills bugs on the wing, but is effective for weeks after it's applied. RIDSECT has a pleasant odour and comes ready for use. In 16-oz., 32-oz. and 1-gal. cans.

Floods, Late Spring To Reduce Wheat Acreage By 1,500,000

WINNIPEG (CP)—Flooding in many sections, heavy rains and a cold, backward spring have combined to make seeding in the three prairie provinces at least two weeks late and reduce wheat acreage by roughly 1,500,000 acres, the Winnipeg Tribune said today in its first telegraphic crop report for the current season.

Comparatively few mid-western Canadian districts report seeding general, the newspaper said, although the work will be under way actively in most regions next week. In all three provinces there still is much water lying on the fields, both from melting snow and heavy spring rains.

Based on correspondents' returns and compared with Dominion Bureau of Statistics acreage figures for 1947, prairie farmers this year expect to plant 21,790,000 acres of wheat, a decrease of 6.5 per cent as compared with the 23,216,000 acres sown to wheat a year ago, the Tribune said.

An increase of 4.9 per cent—from 7,895,000 to 8,284,000 acres—is forecast in prairie oat crop acreage. A slightly smaller increase—4.7 per cent—is predicted for barley, 1948 acreage being estimated at 7,366,000 acres against 7,035,000 in 1947.

The newspaper said rye shows the greatest per cent increase of all crops. Total acreage is forecast at 1,292,000, compared with 1,112,000 in 1947, or an increase of 16.2 per cent.

Brother, Sister

DAVID CHARLES HOLMES,
B.A.Sc.

CONSTANCE DORA HOLMES

A Victoria brother and sister have chalked up brilliant scholastic records in University of British Columbia and Victoria College examinations, the results of which were announced Wednesday.

Winning his Bachelor of Applied Science degree in forest engineering, David Charles Holmes, 23, took $1,000 worth of scholarships. They are a $750 H. R. MacMillan Export Co. Ltd. graduate scholarship in forestry, a $150 award by the same company for his thesis on "Fire Protection Plan" and a $100 scholarship awarded by the Canadian Forest Products Ltd. for general proficiency in his work during his two final postgraduate years.

He intends to use his scholarships to proceed to the University of Washington, Seattle, to work toward his Master of Science degree in forestry.

The latest scholarships won by Holmes bring to more than $1,500 his total scholastic winnings. A Mount View High School graduate, he proceeded to Victoria College where he won the Sir Percy Lake Memorial Scholarship of $150 for general proficiency.

At U.B.C. last year he was awarded the Canadian Forest Products Ltd. $150 scholarship for highest standing in third year forest engineering and the Phil Wilson bursary in forestry of $225 for "leadership, sterling character and general proficiency."

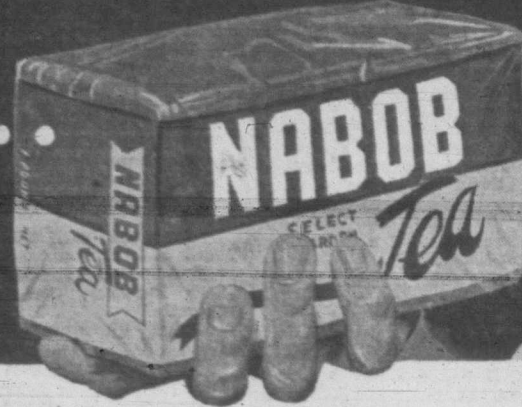

His sister, Constance Dora Holmes, 28, led second year women at Victoria College with an average of 86.7 per cent in the examinations. She will proceed to U.B.C. entering the law school next fall. It is possible that when the scholarships for the Victoria College term just ended are announced she will be among the winners.

A John Shaw High School, Nanaimo, graduate, she took her senior matriculation by correspondence while working in the office of E. L. Tait, Victoria barrister and solicitor.

The pair are the children of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Holmes, 2888 Dysart Road.

Government Help Offered Saanich For Glanford Work

Resurfacing of Glanford Avenue north of Carey Road will be completed if the Saanich Council agrees to a provincial government offer of $5,000 on the undertaking that the municipal body will put up a like amount.

Arthur Ash, Coalition member for Saanich, reported this after an interview with Minister of Public Works E. C. Carson. Reeve E. C. Warren considered this good news and said the offer would be put to the next meeting of the council.

A total of 3,600 feet of the road south of Quadra Street was resurfaced last year, the government paying $2,000 and Saanich $446.

Completion of this work will provide an alternative to Quadra as an arterial northward from the city.

$50,000 Damage In Vancouver Fire

VANCOUVER (CP)—An entire business block for a time Wednesday night was threatened by a two-alarm fire which destroyed the Mitchell drugstore and damaged the New Method beauty parlor and Park Realty in the east end district of this city. Damage estimates range as high as $50,000.

The fire broke out in the drugstore's chemical store room and was shut off from firemen by automatic steel doors. The fire fighters reached the flames by chopping through the main floor and the outer wall after smashing plate-glass windows.

Arabs Wonder If Truce To Last After British Mandate Ends

By MAX BOYD

CAIRO (AP)—Arabs wondered today whether a truce will prevail in Palestine or if regular Arab armies will be moving across the borders when the British mandate ends at midnight Friday night.

Leaders of Arab countries adjoining Palestine realize the Zionist army already has partitioned Palestine in spite of Arab guerrilla opposition. They know this Jewish army is smart, well equipped and well entrenched. It has powerful allies. They are reluctant to risk reprisals at home that might result from military reverses. Most of them fear war in the Middle East would improve an already fertile field for Communism.

On the other hand, powerful political oppositions are waiting in several Arab countries to accuse the existing governments of betraying Arab honor if they back down without sending armies into Palestine.

The situation is complicated by the long-standing rivalries and current confusion among Arab leaders. Some Zionists feel other Arab countries are as distrustful as ever of the territorial aims of King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan, who commands the British-trained Arab Legion with its modern armored cars.

A substantial portion of the Egyptian army is standing on the Palestine border ready to enter if so ordered. It has artillery, armored cars, infantry and a few planes. Army sources say the force includes 15,000 men. Abdullah's Arab Legion is in even a more advanced position, judging by the Jewish Agency's protest against 3,000 Legionnaires on duty under contract in the Holy Land. Iraq, whose boy King Feisal is, like Abdullah, a member of the Hashemite family, has sent an armored force and infantry to Trans-Jordan.

WEAPONS PURCHASED

Military sources in Baghdad said the Iraqi army has been strengthened in recent months by all sorts of weapons bought from Britain.

Egypt has a small navy of minesweepers, corvettes and lighter craft. The small Egyptian air force has Spitfire fighters and has some experience in sea patrols. Should Egypt undertake to blockade the Jewish-held coast, it would be taking on a job which the Royal Navy, with its far-flung intelligence network and modern ships, radar and planes, failed to execute in recent years with full success.

Aviation Writers To Visit Montreal

NEW YORK—One hundred and fifty members of the Aviation Writers' Association, representing major newspapers and magazines in the United States and Canada, will wind up their four-day convention here Sunday when they fly to Montreal for the day aboard four 40-passenger North Star aircraft of the Trans-Canada Air Lines.

The aviation writers will leave LaGuardia Airport at 8 a.m., E.D.T., Sunday and are scheduled to arrive in Montreal one and one-half hours later. They will be the guests of the Canadian aviation industry while in the Canadian metropolis.

They will inspect a number of Canadian-built aircraft, including both civilian and military versions of Canadian North Star and De Havilland Chipmunks, Beavers and Doves. Also on display will be the De Havilland Vampire, a jet fighter craft capable of speeds in excess of 500 m.p.h. which has been adopted by the Royal Canadian Air Force. One of the Vampires will give a demonstration flight over the airport.

After the inspection of the air-

Foundation Stone Of New Chamber To Be Laid May 26

LONDON (Reuters)—The foundation stone of Britain's new House of Commons chamber—the old one was demolished by German bombs in 1941—will be officially laid May 26, it was announced Wednesday.

Col. Douglas Clifton Brown, speaker of the House of Commons, will perform the ceremony, which it is understood will be broadcast and televised. Speeches will be made by Prime Minister Attlee and by Winston Churchill, Leader of the Opposition.

Preliminary work on the new house has been going on for some time. The steel structure is up and ready to be clothed with five-ton blocks of warm cream-colored stone from England's smallest county—Rutland.

This stone has been chosen as most likely to resist the smoke and grime of London.

The new chamber will retain the two main characteristics of the old: it will be oblong and small—not big enough to provide seats for all its members.

Canada Not Asked About Soviet Talks

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister St. Laurent told the Commons Tuesday that Canada has not been consulted on the Soviet-U.S. talks towards a better understanding.

He told John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, that the Dominion has had no official information about the negotiations, disclosed Tuesday by Moscow radio.

The subject was of "very great interest," and he had no doubt Canada would receive official information "in due course."

British Columbia Pythian Convention Here Next Week

Approximately 400 members of the Pythian Order are expected to converge on Victoria next week when delegates and members arrive to attend the 47th session of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias, Domain of British Columbia, and the 33rd session of the Grand Temple Pythian Sisters of British Columbia.

Both sessions will be held on May 19 and 20. Proceedings will commence with registrations and a reception on Tuesday evening, in the Knights of Pythias Hall on Cormorant Street presided over by officers and members of Far West Lodge No. 1 and Capital City Lodge No. 61 Knights of Pythias, and Island Temple No. 8 and Capital City Temple No. 35 Pythian Sisters, all of Victoria.

Grand Lodge sessions will commence at 9, Wednesday, with Grand Chancellor Ray-Toppis of Victoria in the chair. Election and installation of officers will take place on the second day of the sessions.

MANY PROJECTS
Many worthwhile projects have been carried on by the order during the past year, and this session will decide what action will be taken on these projects during the year, and grants made to carry them on. Among these are the B.C. Musical Festival, the Knights of Pythias Public Speaking Contest and others.

The social side of the two days will be marked by a banquet and ball at the Empress Hotel on the evening of May 19. Between the banquet and ball, Margaret Rose Sunshine Council No. 1 Girls' Drill Team will put on a display.

On the evening of May 20 in the Lower Crystal ballroom will take place the B.C. finals of the Knights of Pythias Public Speaking Contest when winners from five districts in B.C. will compete for the privilege of taking part in the regional contest and thence to the final contest in Milwaukee where the winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship and each other contestant a $250 scholarship. Besides the public speaking contest there will be a display by the drill team of Margaret Rose Sunshine Girls' Council followed by a degree staff competition of two or more Pythian Sisters' teams.

To Address Young People's Meeting

Rev. David I. Forsythe, secretary of the Christian Education Board of the United Church of Canada, will speak before a meeting of young people to be held at the First United Church Monday evening at 8.

The meeting is to be held in connection with the current annual B.C. conference of the United Church, and the subject will be "The Front Line Is Back Here."

Mr. Forsythe was appointed board secretary in 1947. Prior to his appointment he served in churches in Waterloo and Montreal.

Jack Spiller, vice-president of the B.C. Young People's Union, will be chairman of the meeting and Sam Gung and Fred Johnston will conduct worship services.

A business and social meeting of the Ex-R.A.F. Club of Victoria will be held Friday evening at 8 in the Y.W.C.A., it is announced.

It takes more than kisses to keep a man happy! If you want your man always to be proud of you . . . if you want always to look your youngest, slimmest, and loveliest . . . you must watch your diet! ## Senior Ball Tilt Ends In Uproar As Eagles Nip Gasmen

Youthful Murray MacArthur of Pitzer and Nex couldn't find the plate last night and wound up by giving out 13 bases on balls in an abbreviated senior league fixture at Macdonald Park as the gasmen dropped a 7 to 6 verdict to Gar Taylor's Eagles.

The victory was Eagles' second straight and put the birdmen in first place in the league standings, half a game in front of last night's losers and Ben's Bombers.

Eagles only managed to garner two hits from MacArthur but the gasmen's hurler in addition to being generous with his free tickets hit two batters and was charged with four wild pitches.

Eagles scored in every inning but the fifth. They pushed three runners across in the first, one in second, third and fourth frames and the winning marker in the sixth.

Losers tallied twice in the initial frame and after being held scoreless for three innings came through with a three-run outburst in the fifth. A singleton in the first half of the sixth tied the score at 6 to 6.

Buddy Bendall's slow roller down the third base line scored Reg Clarkson with the winning run. A bit of a rhabarb ensued in the play with Pitzer and Nex threatening to walk off the field.

The gasmen claimed the ball was foul. Reynolds got the gate from umpire Bridgwood for his part in the fracas.

Has Four Winners At Woodbine Park

TORONTO (CP)—Jockey Fred Dodge turned in a perfect score in Wednesday's Greenwood Racing Club card at Woodbine Park, driving four winners home over the muddy track. The 21-year-old Walden, Colo., horse pilot had only four mounts in the seven races and every one was a winner.

Dodge rides for the D. Campbell stables and booted three home for them. The only outsider Dodge had was W. E. Macdonald's Count Double, which beat out Florian Sam in a hard drive to win the fifth race, paying $25.80.

"Dark Passage," now at the Atlas Theatre, is Humphrey Bogart's 41st film for Warner Bros., the studio where he reported in 1935 for his screen bow as Duke Mantee in "The Petrified Forest," the same role he created on the stage. During his 12 years in Hollywood, Bogart has outgrown the menace roles that elevated him to stardom. He has since become a hard-hitting hero.

ROYAL THEATRE

"The Queen of Sheba" is back in pictures! Betty Blythe, famous charmer of the silent days, returns to the screen to portray a vixenish society woman in "Cass Timberlane," starring Spencer Tracy and Lana Turner at the Royal Theatre.

Instead of the handful of beads which made her "Sheba" costumes the talk of the world, Miss Blythe now is swathed in satins and furs for her role in the M-G-M filmization of Sinclair Lewis' best-seller novel.

Mount Douglas Wins

Faced by Donn McGee with five hits in as many trips and Ray Hanson with four for four, Mount Douglas High School senior softballers crushed Victoria High Girls, 26 to 6. Johnny Lum hurried the win for Saanichton.

Mount Douglas scored four runs in the first inning, but McGee tied it up in the second, only to see winners unleash a terrific 13-run rally to put the game beyond all doubt.

Brentwood College Summer Fixture List Released

Home cricket matches will be played on the outdoor Park ground by kind permission of the Parks Committee.

Graziano Ready For Title Bout With Zale June 9

ELLENVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—Although his title fight with Tony Zale is still four weeks away, a casual observer, middleweight champion Rocky Graziano looks fit and ready to go.

The rugged, hard-hitting New Yorker is tan and trim after several weeks of training up here in the Catskill Mountains for the June 9 bout in Newark, N.J.

At first the clear mountain air bothered the Rock more than his sparring partner's punches. He's more at home in New York's Stillman's Gym, where the air comes through cracks in the windows.

The champ is concentrating on strengthening the power of his left hand blows. For Rocky, that's a task. He likes to throw his right hand hard and often. That's his money punch and he knows it.

"I'm getting better with the left," he said. "I'll hurt someone. But no use kidding, I'll have to do business with my right when I get in there with Zale again."

ADMITTS ZALE TOUGH

"He's a real tough customer. This fight's going to be like the other two. One of us won't be standing up after a while and I aim to be the one still swinging."

This is the third bout between Graziano and Zale, the first two ending in six-round knockouts. Zale won the first in Yankee Stadium, Sept. 27, 1946. Rocky lifted the crown last July in Chicago.

Locke Will Make Tour Of Western Canada In August

VANCOUVER (CP)—Golf enthusiasts from eight western Canada cities will have an opportunity this summer of witnessing the putting wizardry which has made Bobby Locke, South African professional, one of the top link artists on the continent.

Stan Leonard, Marine Drive Golf Club pro here who will accompany Locke, said the two-week exhibition tour would start from Winnipeg about mid-August and work west.

Cities in which the two golfers would give exhibitions included Winnipeg, Brandon, Regina, Saskatoon, Lethbridge and Edmonton. Leonard said three other cities would also be included but arrangements were not yet completed.

"I'm looking after all the matches," said Leonard.

Speedy Tacoma Car May Run At Langford Track

The $250 bonus purse for the driver breaking the 18-second track record at Langford Speedway may pull Leo Dobrey's $6,000 speedster to Saturday's races.

Promoter Bruce Passmore has been dicker with Dobrey for the last two years in an effort to have him bring the double overhead racing job to Victoria but up until now has never been successful.

Shorty Schovel, who qualified and started in last year's Indianapolis classic, is Dobrey's driver and will be at the wheel of the car should it appear here. Dobrey and Schovel, who both hail from Tacoma, have nearly finished a $20,000 car which they hope to enter in the Indianapolis race this year.

Chuck House of Tacoma has completed repairs to his No. 25 car and will be on hand to race Saturday, along with the speedy No. 7 machine from Seattle which Pike Green has been piloting into the money. Gene and Del Fanning will be back with their No. 77 car. Completing the field will be the usual strong entry of Victoria cars and drivers.

Pittsburgh Ball Players In Mansion

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Nine Pittsburgh Pirates who couldn't find apartments now live in a 22-room former mansion, complete with "house mother."

The Pirates—Danny Marttaugh, Bob Chesnes, Johnny Riddle, Johnny Hopp, Elmer Riddle, Forrest Main, Stan Rojek, Grady Wilson and Don Gutteridge—admit they never had it so good.

The lady they've dubbed "mom"—Mrs. V. W. Daniels—declares openly, "I love my boys." She not only houses the Pirates but prepares their meals. The cook quit and the Bucs like "mom's" cooking so well they won't let her hire another one.

But Mrs. Daniels finds being too close to the team has its drawbacks.

"The boys only let me go to the night games," she complained. "They know I can't go during the day and get their dinner, too. And they like to eat."
